The Baptism of The Lord

January 9th, 2022

Is 42:1-4, 6-7 / Ps 29: 1-4. 9-10 / Acts 10: 34-38 / Lk: 116, 21-22

The Baptism of John the Baptist was a baptism of repentance. Jesus was God's Son, human like us in every way, except he was without sin. Why would he present himself for baptism by John? If you are confused about the baptism of Jesus, you are in good company. The early Church was confused and somewhat uncomfortable about it. St. Matthew reports John saying to Jesus "I ought to be baptized by you, yet you come to me" St. Luke, as we heard in today's gospel, hardly mentions the baptism itself. And St. John in his gospel, hardly mentions the baptism itself. And St. John in his gospel makes only an indirect reference to it. Yet all the gospels as well as the Acts of the Apostles know that it happened, but they struggled to understand it

Jesus did not have sin to repent of, so John's baptism had no relevance in this regard. One approach to understanding this event is to see it as a clarification of who Jesus is. He is God's Son, his beloved, with whom the Father is well pleased. There would be no question about Jesus' identity. Jesus' identity had already been revealed to us in Luke's gospel when the angel told Mary at the annunciation that she would conceive her child through the power of the Holy Spirit and he would be holy and called the Son of God. Jesus' identity was also revealed when Jesus was lost in the temple for three days and when he was found he said to his parents: "why were you looking for me? Didn't you know I must be in my Father's house?" But his identity was hidden from everyone around them. IT was only when Jesus was baptized, and God announced to the world "This is my beloved Son" and the Spirit came down upon him that the world would know who he was.

Our baptism gives us our identity too. It tells us: we are God's child sharing God's life, beloved by the Father and called to live our lives in a way that is pleasing to our heavenly Father. So often we forget who we are and that we are God's beloved

God has already made us someone worthwhile He first made us in his image and likeness. More than that he had given us his life. He has made us his beloved son or daughter.

Through baptism we have been defined forever as God's Children and the only way we can deface or destroy that dignity that has been given to us is ourselves.

But, Jesus' baptism not only clarified for all the world who Jesus was, but it also gave Jesus his mission. He was to be a covenant for the people and a light for the nations. Especially he was called to establish justice on the earth. Justice here means "righteousness," fidelity to God, goodness, living up to what we know God wants of us. Who we are should define how we live. If a person is a policeman, he or she is to work to uphold the law. If a person is a doctor, he or she has a concern about people's health. If a person is a teacher, he or she is oriented toward helping people grow in wisdom and knowledge. If we are God's child, we are called to live up to that dignity. And in trying to live up to that dignity, who better could we imitate than the perfect Son of God, with whom the Father was well pleased.

As we celebrate Jesus' baptism, may we at the same time celebrate our own. May we rejoice in God's gift of love and life given to us, and may we live up to the high dignity with which God has blessed us.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all our hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, and the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY AND THEIR FAMILIES

Prayer to Saint Jude for Hope

God the Father, give me hope. Help me to know that your hope is alive in me as I offer kindness, forgiveness, and tenderness to others. I seek the calm that comes from trusting in your hope and your healing presence.

I trust that your servant St. Jude walks with me and in all the blessings and challenges of my life, and intercedes on behalf of my petitions.

St. Jude, fill my heart with hope.

Amen.

From Your Pastor's Desk

Beloved Parishioners,

Happy New Year and Happy Feast Day of our Lord's Baptism. As we begin the New Year 2022, allow me to express my heartfelt THANK YOU to all of you for all your support to our Parish Family. Beyond the difficulties and many problems like the pandemic that we encountered last year, we were able to move on as a Parish Family. With your support, two big projects were completed. The new roof of our priest residence and the Rosary walk. We also met our Diocesan Services Appeal (DSA) goal with $3,610 over our goal.

In a special way, I would like to thank our clergy, the staff, the different ministries in our parish pastoral program, the Finance Council, the Knights of Columbus and the Ladies Guild. Your dedication and hard works made Emmanuel truly a parish family. Thank you for all the Christmas and New Year's cards that you sent to our clergy and members of the staff with the gifts and words of inspiration.

Dearly Beloved, whatever this new year brings, we don't have to worry or be afraid because we trust God more than ourselves. He is Emmanuel- GOD IS WITH US. St. Paul said: If God is with us, who can be against us. May God always bless you and your families, abundant graces that you need and of Good Health of Mind and Body.

Ordinary Time

“Besides the time of the year that have their own distinctive character, there remains a yearly cycle thirty-three or thirty-four weeks in which no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated, but rather the mystery of Christ itself is honored in its fullness, especially on Sundays. This period is known as Ordinary Time” (Universal Norms, 43).

Ordinary time begins on Monday, January 10th, and continues through Tuesday, March 1st, the day before Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the Lenten Season. It will resume when the Easter Season ends, that is on Monday, June 6th, the day following Pentecost.

Saint Marguerite Bourgeoys' Story

“God closes a door and then opens a window,” people sometimes say when dealing with their own disappointment or someone else’s. That was certainly true in Marguerite’s case. Children from European as well as Native American backgrounds in 17th-century Canada benefited from her great zeal and unshakable trust in God’s providence.

Born the sixth of 12 children in Troyes, France, Marguerite at the age of 20 believed that she was called to religious life. Her applications to the Carmelites and Poor Clares were unsuccessful. A priest friend suggested that perhaps God had other plans for her.

In 1654, the governor of the French settlement in Canada visited his sister, an Augustinian canoness in Troyes. Marguerite belonged to a sodality connected to that convent. The governor invited her to come to Canada and start a school in Ville-Marie (eventually the city of Montreal). When she arrived, the colony numbered 200 people with a hospital and a Jesuit mission chapel.

Soon after starting a school, she realized her need for coworkers. Returning to Troyes, she recruited a friend, Catherine Crolo, and two other young women. In 1667, they added classes at their school for Indian children. A second trip to France three years later resulted in six more young women and a letter from King Louis XIV, authorizing the school. The Congregation of Notre Dame was established in 1676 but its members did not make formal religious profession until 1698 when their Rule and constitutions were approved.

Marguerite established a school for Indian girls in Montreal. At the age of 69, she walked from Montreal to Quebec in response to the bishop’s request to establish a community of her sisters in that city. By the time she died, she was referred to as the “Mother of the Colony.” Marguerite was canonized in 1982.

Reflection

It’s easy to become discouraged when plans that we think that God must endorse are frustrated. Marguerite was called not to be a cloistered nun but to be a foundress and an educator. God had not ignored her after all.
