Second Sunday of Ordinary Time (C)
January 16th, 2022
Is 62:1-5 / Ps 96:1-3, 7-10 / 1 Cor 12:4-11 / Jn 2:1-11

This story comes from Readers Digest. There was an older couple at their granddaughter's wedding reception. The MC at the reception asked which couple in the room was married the longest. It turned out to be that older couple and so the MC asked the wife what advice she would give the newly weds. She said "The three most important words in a marriage are: 'you're probably right'," The MC turned to the husband and asked what he thought and he answered "She's probably right,"

If I had to offer any advice and I had to sum it up in a few words I would say: "Keep the Lord in your marriage." Just look at what he did for the couple at the wedding feast in today's gospel. He'll keep the wine of love flowing. Without his help a couple's love will dry up.

Now I know life is very complicated and human relationships are very complicated. So when I say what I have to say today, in no way do I mean to imply that if a couple is having marital problems it's because they are not in a right relationship with God. Lots of things can cause problems in relationships. But I think one of the keys in marital happiness and stability is the presence of the Lord in the lives of the couple. Research bears this out. Couples who attend church are more apt to stay married and are more likely to be happier.

Just consider the marriage commitment. A man and a woman promise to love each other for better or for worse until death do they part. They have no idea what this might mean for them. They have no idea what's ahead! If a couple hope to overcome all the challenges that life can throw their way without the Lord's blessing and his help, they must think they are superhuman beings. To help a husband and wife God made marriage a sacrament. And God offers his help every day through prayer and the Eucharist.

Many consider the Church as old fashioned , but I think the Church is wise

- In expecting couples to go to Mass on Sunday: we need that contact with God,
- In expecting them to make some serious preparations for their marriage and not just for the wedding,
- In expecting a man and a woman to wait until they are married before they live together,
- In expecting a lifelong commitment solemnly made before God to be lifelong.

Love is not always easy. That's why Jesus made it a commandment. Because we don't always feel like being loving towards someone.

There are many layers of meaning in today's gospel, but certainly the sanctity of marriage is one of them. I think it is significant that it was at a wedding feast that Jesus worked his first miracle. I'm sure in his thirty some years living at home he saw lots of sick people and blind people and crippled people that would have appreciated being cured. But his first miracle wasn't one of healing. It should be noted, it was in response to a request from his mother, but it was to keep a wedding celebration from ending on a bad note. And it was quite a miracle: changing somewhere between 90 and 150 gallons of water into wine.

Today he works another miracle even more spectacular, changing bread into his body and wine into his blood. This miracle of the Eucharist has only one purpose. He gives us his body and blood to change us into the kind of loving person he was. Not all of us are married. Some may be widowed, or separated or some extremely difficult situation may have necessitated a divorce. Some may never have been married and some may never intend to get married, but whatever situation we are in, we all have to interact with people and we can all grow in love. May God fill us with the wine of his love. Amen.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.
Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service.
Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.
Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.

Amen

Prayer to Saint Jude for Hope

God the Father, give me hope. Help me to know that your hope is alive in me as I offer kindness, forgiveness, and tenderness to others. I seek the calm that comes from trusting in your hope and your healing presence.

I trust that your servant St. Jude walks with me and in all the blessings and challenges of my life, and intercedes on behalf of my petitions.

St. Jude, fill my heart with hope.

Amen.

Saint of the Week

Saint Agnes' Story

Almost nothing is known of this saint except that she was very young—12 or 13—when she was martyred in the last half of the third century. Various modes of death have been suggested—beheading, burning, strangling.

Legend has it that Agnes was a beautiful girl whom many young men wanted to marry. Among those she refused, one reported her to the authorities for being a Christian. She was arrested and confined to a house of prostitution. The legend continues that a man who looked upon her lustfully lost his sight and had it restored by her prayer. Agnes was condemned, executed, and buried near Rome in a catacomb that eventually was named after her. The daughter of Constantine built a basilica in her honor.

Reflection

Like that of Maria Goretti in the 20th century, the martyrdom of a virginal young girl made a deep impression on a society enslaved to a materialistic outlook. Also like Agatha, who died in similar circumstances, Agnes is a symbol that holiness does not depend on length of years, experience, or human effort. It is a gift God offers to all.
