Parish Mission Statement

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As one parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time (C)

February 13th, 2022

Jer 17:5-8 / Ps 1: 1-4, 6 / 1 Cor 15:12, 16-20 / Lk 6:17, 20-26

The Beatitudes of Jesus, makes us reflect: God's values are upside down. God favors those who are weak and disadvantages. In other words, Jesus is saying the unfortunate of this world, precisely because of their present condition of deprivation are capable of appreciating the good things He is bringing them. They are like hungry guests invited to a grand feast. However, those who have everything they want or think they have everything they want can hardly appreciate what Jesus is bringing them because they don't feel the need of it.

When we talk about poverty, about being poor, what comes to mind is material poverty, But there is a worse form of poverty than that. It is to be lonely, empty and unloved. It is possible to be materially well-off but they can be more miserable than those who are materially less fortunate.

In the Sermon on the Mount, Christ proclaims the beatitudes of the kingdom which are diametrically opposed to the worldly standards. "Blest are you poor and blest are you who hunger," declares Jesus in our Gospel. On the other hand, Jesus says, "But woe to you rich for your consolation is now, woe to you who are full, for you shall go hungry." Christ undeniably is a sign of contradiction because what he is proclaiming is different from earthly wisdom. As St. Paul tells us, "The wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God" (1 Cor. 3:19).

The one thing which shuts a man off from God is self-sufficiency. Love's greatest glory is to be needed. But a person who puts his trust and security on his possessions will not feel a clamant need for God. He is self-satisfied. He is not open to love of God, to the need of forgiveness, to the necessity of obeying God's will, and to the life beyond this world. But no matter how wealthy he is, his heart remains empty because the core of every human heart is the need for God.

But when a man begins to realize that things mean nothing and that God is everything, he will put his whole trust in God. He will be conscious of his own helplessness and be able to detach himself from the temporal value of things. He will attach himself to God, as he learns that only God can bring real happiness and security in life.

If God is our hope, our joy is completely independent of the chances and the changes of life. The world can merely give fickle joys. A collapse of health, a loss of fortune, failures and disappointments can easily defeat its shaky securities. But the Christian joy in Christ can stand through pain, sorrow and loss. It is a joy which nothing in life or death can take away.

Even in the face of suffering and persecutions, a disciple of Christ will see such a moment not as a penalty, but as a glory. It is taken as an opportunity to show one's faithfulness to the Teacher, and to share in the rewards of heaven. "No one," Christ said, "will take your joy from you" (Jn 16:22).

In the poverty of our hearts, let us pray that God may give us the courage to place all our trust and hope in him, that we may follow him completely in our lives, and attain with him completely in our lives, and attain with him the happiness that lasts forever. Happy are we who hope in the Lord.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.
Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service.
Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.
Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.

Amen

Prayer to Saint Jude for Hope

God the Father, give me hope. Help me to know that your hope is alive in me as I offer kindness, forgiveness, and tenderness to others. I seek the calm that comes from trusting in your hope and your healing presence.
I trust that your servant St. Jude walks with me and in all the blessings and challenges of my life, and intercedes on behalf of my petitions.
St. Jude, fill my heart with hope.
Amen.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend, February 19th and 20th, the Diocese of Palm Beach will have a second collection to support our local priests who have retired. Many of our retired priests, because of age or infirmity, are no longer able to publicly assist at Mass, yet are nonetheless integral parts of our diocesan family. In addition to supporting them financially, we also ask that you pray for our retired priests during this same weekend.

The money raised from this collection helps support the nearly 40 retired priests within our five counties. These priests, who have blessed us with their joyful service to the Lord, are valued members of our diocese now and always. Your support of our retired priests, through your prayers and generosity, is greatly appreciated. Thank you in advance for allowing them to continue to be faithful stewards of God's mysteries.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito

Knights of Columbus

Worthy Brothers and Sisters, a date has been confirmed and set on behalf of Grand Knight Russel Sylvestre with Pastor Fr. Zamora, Emmanuel Parish in Delray Beach on Sunday, February 27, 2022 for a "KNIGHTS EDUCATION" speaking event at Columbus Hall.

The Blessed Mother Council 13338 is proud to host the event, which will take place after the 12:00 Mass. At 1:30 pm. Florida State Region 6 District Deputies, Council members, parish groups, parishioners, family and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Noted surgeon, professor and highly credentialed Dr. Joseph Ricotta will lecture on vascular health issues and state of the state-of the art-surgical procedures:

Joseph Ricotta, MD, MS, DFSVS, FACS is a nationally and internationally renowned expert and innovator in the field of Vascular and Endovascular Surgery. He was the first in the U.S. to perform Endovascular Robotic Surgery, the first in Florida to perform the TCAR (transcarotid artery revascularization) procedure and has performed over 200 procedures since, making Delray Medical Center a national TCAR Center of Excellence. He was also the first in Southeast U.S. to perform Venaseal™ procedure for treatment of venous insufficiency. In addition, he pioneered renowned limb-preservation and pulmonary embolism treatment programs in Palm Beach County and founded the Florida Atlantic University (FAU) Vascular Surgery Fellowship and is a professor of surgery at FAU School of Medicine where he is training future vascular surgeons. Dr. Ricotta has also authored more than 200 publications and delivered more than 350 lectures.

Refreshments will be provided. (Please let us know if a large group is to be expected so we can plan the refreshments accordingly) Should you have questions contact the event Committee Chairmen Armando Minutoli, with Worthy Knight Co-Chairs: Peter Cavanagh, Chuck Dolce, and Dr. Abraham Kalathoor. We look forward to seeing you there.

Saint Claude de la Colombière's Story

This is a special day for the Jesuits, who claim today's saint as one of their own. It's also a special day for people who have a special devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus—a devotion Claude de la Colombière promoted along with his friend and spiritual companion, Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque. The emphasis on God's love for all was an antidote to the rigorous moralism of the Jansenists, who were popular at the time.

Claude showed remarkable preaching skills long before his ordination in 1675. Two months later, he was made superior of a small Jesuit residence in Burgundy. It was there he first encountered Margaret Mary Alacoque. For many years after he served as her confessor.

He was next sent to England to serve as confessor to the Duchess of York. He preached by both words and by the example of his holy life, converting a number of Protestants. Tensions arose against Catholics and Claude, rumored to be part of a plot against the king, was imprisoned. He was ultimately banished, but by then his health had been ruined.

He died in 1682. Pope John Paul II canonized Claude de la Colombière in 1992.

Reflection

As a fellow Jesuit and as a promoter of the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Saint Claude must be very special to Pope Francis who has so beautifully emphasized the mercy of Jesus. The emphasis on God's love and mercy are characteristic of both men.

Sunday School News
