Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord (C)

April 17th, 2022

Acts 10:34a, 37-43 / Ps 118: 1-2, 16-17, 22-23 / Col 3:1-4 / John 20: 1-9

CHRIST HAS RISEN! ALLELUIA! THIS IS THE DAY THE LORD HAS MADE. LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD!

On Christmas day, we rejoice at the conception and birth of Jesus from spirit to flesh. The empty womb of the Blessed Mother became a source of expectation and promise for us of the salvation of the Father.

Now, on this Easter day, we are joyful. From the blessed womb of Mary to the empty tomb of Jesus we have come to celebrate life. Jesus is alive. Christ has risen from the dead. The love between God and man did not end in tragedy of the cross. Darkness and death were overcome. On Easter morning, the sun shone brightly, triumphantly. Christ conquered sin and death, the twin enemies of the human race, when he rose glorious and immortal from the grave. The love of God is for eternity.

In the resurrection of Christ, St. Paul confidently wrote: "Death has been swallowed up by victory. Death, where is your victory? Death where is your sting?" (1 Cor. 15: 54-55).

The existentialist philosophers contended that God created us and left us to ourselves. They talked about the angst and the misery of existence. This outlook on life and drove many people to despair. A life without hope can be empty and frustrating.

Chuck Swindell in "Stress Fractures" states: "We can rebound against wind and weather, calamity and tragedy, disease and death, so long as we have our hope. We can live several weeks without food, days without water, and even several minutes without air, but we take away our hope and within only a few seconds, we toss in the towel!"

Christ's resurrection gives us the needed hope and courageously face life in spite of everything. The Good News is that nothing "will separate us from the love of God, which we have in Jesus Christ, our Lord" (Rom. 8:39). Nothing can vanquish us; not suffering or trials, not sorrow or tragedies, not failure or even death. We know instead that life is slowly unfolding with meaning and direction. Sufferings and death we must experience, but Christ's resurrection teaches us that it will not be in vain. We too will someday share his glorious life.

Every year we celebrate the same event. Every year the story is the same. But every year we are not the same. Events change in our lives and the assurance that Jesus has risen and invites us to share his risen life takes on a different meaning as the years pass.

On this Easter day, our hearts speak with gratitude to the Father for the love he has given to us. We know that our trust in him is not only in this world, but in the eternal life that his son has prepared for us. There is no room for discouragement and emptiness. St Paul declares, "We boast of our hope and for the glory of God. But not only that- we even boast of our afflictions! We know that affliction makes for endurance, and endurance for tested virtue for hope. And this hope will not leave us disappointed..." (Rom. 5:2-5).

Let us live that hope. Let us carry in our lives the Easter meaning. The obedience of Christ to his Father's will brought him to the glorious act of the resurrection. Christ has given us that power in his resurrection. We, too, can rise to a new life with him.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer to Saint Jude for Hope

God the Father, give me hope. Help me to know that your hope is alive in me as I offer kindness, forgiveness, and tenderness to others. I seek the calm that comes from trusting in your hope and your healing presence.

I trust that your servant St. Jude walks with me and in all the blessings and challenges of my life, and intercedes on behalf of my petitions.

St. Jude, fill my heart with hope.

Amen.

Ladies Guild

The Ladies Guild along with Birthline/Lifeline would like to THANK all the parishioners who donated for the baby shower. Your generosity is very much appreciated.

Ladies Guild would also thank all the Life Saving Hero's for another successful Blood Drive.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.

Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service.

Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.

Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.

Amen

Office of
THE BISHOP

(561) 775-9595 Fax (561) 775-7035

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Next weekend, April 23 and 24, 2022, our diocese will participate in the annual Peter's Pence Collection. Donations made to this collection can be directed by the Pope in financing the many activities and services carried out by the Curia (formation of the clergy, communication, promotion of integral human development, education, justice, etc.) and in contributing to numerous works of material assistance for the most in need.

Funds from the Peter's Pence collection allows the Holy Father to respond quickly when natural disasters and tragedies occur around the world. The Office of Papal Charities has recently used proceeds from Peter's Pence to provide food and medical supplies for the people of the Ukraine, for those seeking refuge in neighboring countries, and for victims of natural disasters in Croatia, Haiti, the Philippines, Albania, South Sudan, and Greece. Together, with our Holy Father, we can reach out to those most in need.

By contributing to Peter's Pence, we can together support the Pope's mission through the activities of the Holy See and the initiatives of solidarity in favor of the most vulnerable, to whom the Church's attention has been traditionally directed.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Next weekend Fr. Benedict Redito, pastor of St. John Fisher Church in West Palm Beach, will be speaking at all the Masses.

St. John Fisher is one of the seven mission parishes in the Diocese of Palm Beach, that need extra financial help from other parishes. The parish is approximately 800 active families. It is a multicultural community consisting of Haitians, Filipinos, Hispanics, Caribbeans, and Anglos. The parish motto is "One House, Many Faces" which is a true reflection of the universal Church. The parish is currently conducting a two-year capital campaign to raise $200,000 for various infrastructure projects on campus.

Please give your donations in our second collections. Checks payable to St. John Fisher Catholic Church.

We are looking forward to seeing Fr. Ben

Saint George's Story

Saint George is the object of a vast amount of imagination. There is every reason to believe that he was a real martyr who suffered at Lydda in Palestine, probably before the time of Constantine. The Church adheres to his memory, but not to the legends surrounding his life. That he was willing to pay the supreme price to follow Christ is what the Church believes. And it is enough.

The story of George's slaying the dragon, rescuing the king's daughter, and converting Libya is a 12th-century Italian fable. George was a favorite patron saint of crusaders, as well as of Eastern soldiers in earlier times. He is a patron saint of England, Portugal, Germany, Aragon, Catalonia, Genoa, Milan and Bologna.

Reflection

Human nature seems to crave more than cold historical data. Americans have Washington and Lincoln, but we somehow need Paul Bunyan, too. The life of Saint Francis of Assisi is inspiring enough, but for centuries the Italians have found his spirit in the legends of the Fioretti, too. Santa Claus is the popular extension of the spirit of Saint Nicholas. The legends about Saint George are part of this yearning. Both fact and legend are human ways of illuminating the mysterious truth about the One who alone is holy.
