THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER (C)

May 1st, 2022

Acts 5: 27-32, 40b-41 / Ps 30: 2, 4-6, 11-13 / Rv 5: 11-14 / Jn 21: 1-19

The wonderful thing about Christ is that he continues to love us in spite of our failings. The forgiving love of Jesus is so great that even with our defeat by sin, what he sees in us is our desire to reconcile with him and our resolve to do better next time.

When Jesus in our Gospel reading appeared once again to the disciples, none of them presumed to inquire, “Who are you?,” for they knew it was the Lord.

Many people also knew already about Jesus. The issue about him is not simply a matter of discussing and proving that God exists. Jesus had shown what kind of God his Father was. In his suffering and death on the cross, Christ reveled his Father’s love and forgiveness; in his resurrection, he unveiled God’s promise of eternal life.

This must be what he was explaining to Peter. He realized that Peter already believed in him, but he wanted to Peter to continue his mission of announcing God’s love to all men and women. Yes, Peter loved him but Jesus wished him to proclaim to all the kind of Lord he was as Peter himself had learned and experienced.

Peter denied the Lord three times, and thus, Jesus gave Peter three chances to affirm his love for him. Each time that Peter would profess his love, Jesus would tell him: “Be a shepherd to my sheep... Feed my sheep.” Jesus foretold to him that he would die in carrying out his love for him as the shepherd of his flock. The day came when Peter went to Rome. There he met death. He was nailed to the cross with his head down, his feet up, for he had said that he was not worthy to die as his Lord died.

Our love for Christ is the greatest privilege in the world, but it also involves responsibility and sacrifice. We, too, are shepherds of Christ in the same sense that there are people under our care. We cannot really love Christ unless we are ready to face the task of loving the lambs entrusted to us – even if that would mean carrying the cross and dying for them as Christ, the Good Shepherd, did for us.

A rose is said to be a perfect symbol of romance. It lasts only for days. It withers and fades away. What remains are the thorns, the symbol of sufferings. We can truly love if we can behold not the rose but the thorns. A. Karr once said: “Some people are always grumbling because roses have thorns; I am thankful that thorns have roses.”

There is no easy path to real loving. Let us profess our love for Christ aware of the thorns that will come over way and yet, hopeful that roses will bloom in the everlasting spring.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer to Saint Jude for Hope

God the Father, give me hope. Help me to know that your hope is alive in me as I offer kindness, forgiveness, and tenderness to others. I seek the calm that comes from trusting in your hope and your healing presence.
I trust that your servant St. Jude walks with me and in all the blessings and challenges of my life, and intercedes on behalf of my petitions.
St. Jude, fill my heart with hope.
Amen.

Ladies Guild

The final Ladies Guild meeting for the season is Tuesday May 3rd at 7:00PM.
The 2022-2023 Ladies Guild Installation Mass will take place on Tuesday, May 10, 2022, at 10:30AM.

Luncheon to follow in Columbus Hall is FREE to MEMBERS and $10.00 for Guest.

Please contact: Carol Chapman @ 561 310-3229 with your RSVPs or to purchase tickets before May 5, 2022

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.
Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service.
Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.
Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.
Amen

Thank you for choosing Emmanuel as your Parish during the season. Your generosity in many ways helped Emmanuel a wonderful Parish Family, See you next season, GOD BLESS YOU ALL!

Thank you Communion dress sponsors

Thank you doesn't begin to describe the immense gratitude I have for The Knights of Columbus and Parishioners who generously donated to the creation of our Communion Closet. It is you who made it possible to provide outfits, veils and ties for students receiving their First Holy Communion on Saturday May 7th. The parents as well are truly grateful and in awe for the generous support which enabled their child to pick out an outfit. It made my heart smile to watch the girls look through the dresses with excitement and anticipation of finding a special dress. The outpouring response of emails, monetary donations and dresses has been amazing and I am so excited to be able to expand on the closet and the offering for our future classes. Your kindness has been immense and will have a lasting effect upon those it has touched. God Bless you and your giving heart, Jean Krokus

Over the last eight months, it has been a great honor to journey with this community of Emmanuel Catholic Church. I have had the opportunity to open up the Word of God to you in preaching, to baptize your children, and simply to get to know you by chatting after mass. I would like to thank you all for your support to Deacon Zach. Our Parish Family of Emmanuel is part of the process of his diaconate formation to prepare himself for the great task Jesus will be giving him—the priesthood. For more than 8 months, he learned a lot from us, to help him become a good priest of Jesus Christ of which he is so thankful. Please make plans if you are interested to attend his ordination or thanksgiving mass

Mother's Day

On Sunday May 9th, we will be celebrating Mother's day. We recall one of the people who gave us life. I hope you will get a visit from your children or at least a phone call or text message.

Cardinal Sin loves to recall the story of Giuseppe Sarto who become a Pope and saint. He is known as Pius X. When he was consecrated Bishop of Mantua, he want to see his mother and showed her his precious episcopal ring, saying proudly: "Mother, look at the beautiful ring I received." She smiled and showed him her wedding ring and said: "My son, without this ring you wouldn't have received yours."

What is a mother? The late Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty described her as "the most important person on earth. She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not. She has built something more magnificent than any cathedral a dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby's body."

St. Paul tells us in his letter to the Galatians: "When the fullness of time came, God sent his Son. He came born of a woman...in order to redeem... make us adopted sons and daughters of God. And because you are sons, God has sent into your hearts the spirit of his son which cries out: Abba! That is: Father!" (Gal. 4: 4-6).

This is the reason why mothers have a very glorious dignity because Jesus, the Redeemer had deemed it worthy to be born, formed and loved by a mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. All mothers are special before God.

We encourage you to participate in our Novena of Masses for our mothers. They need our prayers. Mother's Day novena envelopes are located next to the doors in the church and please return them before or on Mother's Day. We start the novena of masses that day at 9am. A special blessing and roses will be distributed for our mothers after all the masses.

Saint Athanasius' Story

Athanasius led a tumultuous but dedicated life of service to the Church. He was the great champion of the faith against the widespread heresy of Arianism, the teaching by Arius that Jesus was not truly divine. The vigor of his writings earned him the title of doctor of the Church.

Born of a Christian family in Alexandria, Egypt, and given a classical education, Athanasius became secretary to Alexander, the bishop of Alexandria, entered the priesthood and was eventually named bishop himself. His predecessor, Alexander, had been an outspoken critic of a new movement growing in the East—Arianism.

When Athanasius assumed his role as bishop of Alexandria, he continued the fight against Arianism. At first, it seemed that the battle would be easily won and that Arianism would be condemned. Such, however, did not prove to be the case. The Council of Tyre was called and for several reasons that are still unclear, the Emperor Constantine exiled Athanasius to northern Gaul. This was to be the first in a series of travels and exiles reminiscent of the life of Saint Paul.

After Constantine died, his son restored Athanasius as bishop. This lasted only a year, however, for he was deposed once again by a coalition of Arian bishops. Athanasius took his case to Rome, and Pope Julius I called a synod to review the case and other related matters.

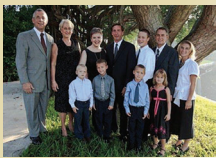

Five times Athanasius was exiled for his defense of the doctrine of Christ's divinity. During one period of his life, he enjoyed 10 years of relative peace—reading, writing, and promoting the Christian life along the lines of the monastic ideal to which he was greatly devoted. His dogmatic and historical writings are almost all polemic, directed against every aspect of Arianism.

Among his ascetical writings, his Life of St. Anthony achieved astonishing popularity and contributed greatly to the establishment of monastic life throughout the Western Christian world.

Reflection

Athanasius suffered many trials while he was bishop of Alexandria. He was given the grace to remain strong against what probably seemed at times to be insurmountable opposition. Athanasius lived his office as bishop completely. He defended the true faith for his flock, regardless of the cost to himself. In today's world we are experiencing this same call to remain true to our faith, no matter what.
