Parish Mission Statement

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As one parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (C)

May 8th, 2022

Acts 1: 14,43-52 / Ps 100: 1-2, 3, 5 / Rv 7: 9,14b-17 / John 10:27-30

A couple celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. After the ceremony, the man was seen crying. The priest approached him and said, "You should not be crying. You should be happy because you reached twenty-five years of marriage" "That is really what I'm crying about," the man explained. "You see, the lawyer-father of my wife threatened me that he would lock me up in jail for twenty-five years if I would not marry his daughter."

"Why are you crying? Put it behind. Forget the past, face tomorrow," advised the priest. But the man responded, "That is the reason why I'm sad. If I had decided to be behind bars, for twenty-five years. I would have been free tomorrow."

There is another story of a couple who had been married for ten years. The wife suffered a lot from her cruel husband. The husband was ashamed of his wife because she has no college education while he was an outstanding professional.

The husband, one day, met an accident and became blind. He advertised for an eye donor. Weeks passed, even months, until finally an anonymous eye donor came. By God's providence, the operation was a success. But the husband was so angry with his wife because she did not visit him in the hospital, much less be present during the critical operation. He was planning to beat her and abandon her. When he came home, he saw his wife, her back toward the door. Immediately he grabbed her hair and violently smashed her to the floor. Just as he was about to slap her, he noticed that his wife had no more eyes. It turned out that she was the donor. Full of guilt, he said, "You were the donor! You gave your eyes to me. Why did you do it for me?" The wife softly replied, "I will always love you."

The first story reflects the husband burdened by a responsibility he did not want. One cannot expect a person to truly love when he is filled with regrets and ill-feelings. The man saw his marriage as a punishment.

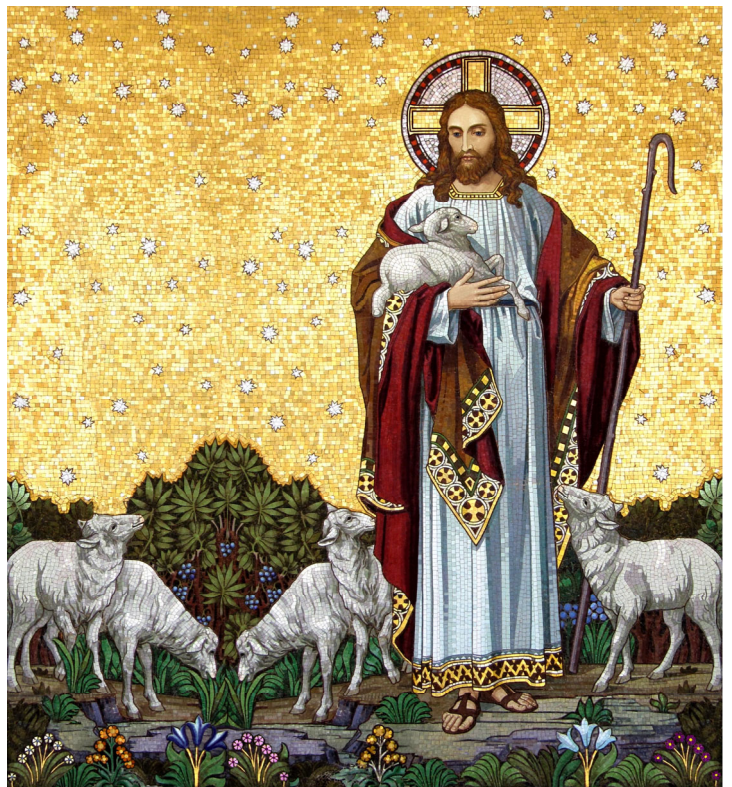

The second story reflects the heroic love of a wife. In spite of everything, the wife loved her husband and sacrificed herself by offering her eyes to him. The wife considered her marriage as a commitment to love.

By declaring himself as the Good Shepherd, and us, his sheep, Jesus enunciated his love for us. To proclaim one's love is a difficult thing. We know that lovers have to suffer in loving, This is the reason why the church, when couples are getting married, they don't face each other, but stand side by side, as they look upon the image of the crucified Christ at the center of the altar. Christ crucified is always the model of love. He is the person who loved us and given his life to prove that love.

I am the Good Shepherd. I am willing to lay down my life for you, he declared to us. And he tells us also: "Love one another as I have loved you... As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you."

Christ invites us this Sunday to be loving shepherds to one another, willing to pay the price of love. Husbands, wives, parents, and children, all of us in our community: we are called upon to imitate the love of God, the courage to stand up for that love, the willingness to serve, and to work for unity. We must not act as wolves that snatch and scatter the sheep entrusted to us. We are challenged to be shepherds by leading one another to fold of Christ, the Good Shepherd.

May we be one family who hear and follow Christ. May we understand and love him more so that we may carry on his love, the selflessness of his love, to be truly good shepherds like him.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer to Saint Jude for Hope

God the Father, give me hope. Help me to know that your hope is alive in me as I offer kindness, forgiveness, and tenderness to others. I seek the calm that comes from trusting in your hope and your healing presence.

I trust that your servant St. Jude walks with me and in all the blessings and challenges of my life, and intercedes on behalf of my petitions.

St. Jude, fill my heart with hope.

Amen.

Novena for First Communicants

O Jesus, You have loved us with such exceedingly great love as to give us the ineffable gift of the Holy Eucharist, inflame us with a burning zeal to promote Your glory by praying for our communicants to prepare worthily to approach Your holy table for the first time. Protect, O Sacred Heart of Jesus, this young soul from the assaults of evil, strengthen their faith, increase their love and endow them with all the virtues that will make them worthy to receive You. Amen. Saint John the Baptist, forerunner of the Messiah, prepare the way for Jesus in the heart of our communicants. Saint Tarcisius, keep safe the children who are making their first Communion.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.

Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service.

Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness.

Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.

Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.

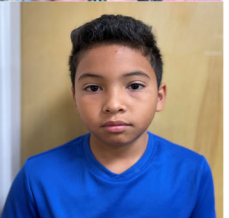

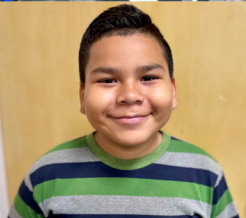

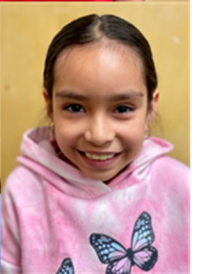

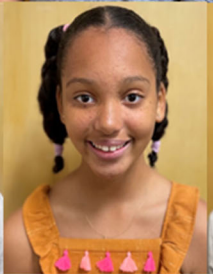

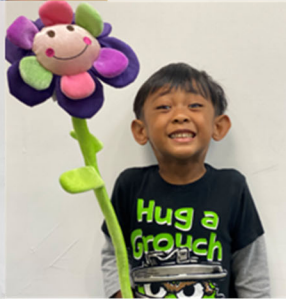

Amen

Our Lady of Fatima's Story

Between May 13 and October 13, 1917, three Portuguese children—Francisco and Jacinta Marto and their cousin Lucia dos Santos—received apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria near Fatima, a city 110 miles north of Lisbon. Mary asked the children to pray the rosary for world peace, for the end of World War I, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia.

Mary gave the children three secrets. Following the deaths of Francisco and Jacinta in 1919 and 1920 respectively, Lucia revealed the first secret in 1927. It concerned devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The second secret was a vision of hell. When Lucia grew up she became a Carmelite nun and died in 2005 at the age of 97.

Pope John Paul II directed the Holy See's Secretary of State to reveal the third secret in 2000; it spoke of a "bishop in white" who was shot by a group of soldiers who fired bullets and arrows into him. Many people linked this vision to the assassination attempt against Pope John Paul II in St. Peter's Square on May 13, 1981.

The feast of Our Lady of Fatima was approved by the local bishop in 1930; it was added to the Church's worldwide calendar in 2002.

Reflection

The message of Fatima is simple: Pray. Unfortunately, some people—not Sister Lucia—have distorted these revelations, making them into an apocalyptic event for which they are now the only reliable interpreters. They have, for example, claimed that Mary's request that the world be consecrated to her has been ignored. Sister Lucia agreed that Pope John Paul II's public consecration in St. Peter's Square on March 25, 1984, fulfilled Mary's request. The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith prepared a June 26, 2000, document explaining the "third secret."

Mary is perfectly honored when people generously imitate her response "Let it be done to me as you say" (Luke 1:38). Mary can never be seen as a rival to Jesus or to the Church's teaching authority, as exercised by the college of bishops united with the bishop of Rome.
