Parish Mission Statement

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As one parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (C)

May 22nd, 2022

Acts 15: 1-2, 22-29 / Ps 67: 2-3, 5-6, 8 / Rv 21: 10-14, 22-23 / Jn: 23-29

When the Risen Christ appeared to his disciples they only saw a vague form which they did not recognize. Worse than that, they thought it was a ghost. It was someone strange and ugly that they screamed in fear. Only after they looked again, more carefully, were they able to recognize him. "Look at my hands and feet; it's really I," Jesus told them, "Touch me" (Lk. 24:39). I have always wondered why Jesus in spite of his resurrection and assumption of a glorious body still bore the scars of his wounds in his hands, feet and heart. There were scars on his head where he was crowned with thorns; there were scars on his face where he received blows from the soldiers; there were scars on his back where he received severe lashing, and scars on his knees, when he fell on the ground as he carried the cross. Why can't Jesus become really beautiful in his glorious state, without the traces of the excruciating pains that he had endured?

I came across a poem by Rev. Charles Cook entitled "Scarred People are Beautiful". This somehow explains the presence of scars in Jesus' body even after his resurrection, I would like to share this poem with you.

SCARRED PEOPLE ARE BEAUTIFUL

I have seen a number of movies lately, Lord,
Like Romeo and Juliet.

The love of young people, at least in those movies, is beautiful... so simple... so total... so uncomplicated...

They seem so natural, so free in their emotions, so clear in their feelings.

I wish I could be like that, Lord

But it can't be; why is that so?

I've been so hurt, Lord.

I have trusted and betrayed at times.

I have loved and received nothing in return.

I have tried hard to care and failed often.

I have shared my secrets and heard them whispered to others.

I have been warm and received a cold shoulder.

I have been through it, Lord.

I have fallen in my face. I've banged my shins. I've been bruised.

Look, Lord, I'm covered with scars!

My son,

Maybe you haven't understood enough;

May you haven't learned that human life is like that: all the saints are scarred.

Young love isn't the highest form of human love.

The greatest love comes from scarred people.

I know that many people stop loving so they won't be hurt again.

But those people who do start over again, who continue in spite of it all,

Who leave themselves open to the possibility of hurt again,

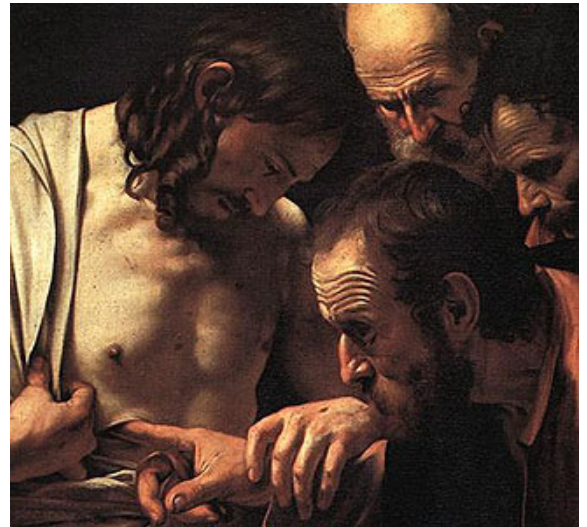

These people are able to love again in a deeper way, a more understanding way, a richer way.

I think I know what you mean, Lord.

I've met people like that... and knowing them gives me courage.

The great people are those who continue to love their scars.

I like SCARRED PEOPLE LORD, THEY ARE BEAUTIFUL.

People who are flawless may be lovely and people who have scars may be ugly. Jesus was full with scars and must have looked terrible but his scars were truly a badge of glory for what he had done, a living proof of his love. Let us look at ourselves, at our parents, at our husbands and wives. Over the years of struggle and hurts, we are full of scars and our human beauty may be gone. But if we come to think of it, all the more we radiate with beauty. Real beauty is not in the face. This will fade away. It emanates from the scars etched by serving and loving. These will remain living testimonies of how we have lived our discipleship with Christ, the Lord who is beautiful because he is full of scars. We too could be beautiful even with our scars.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer to Saint Jude for Hope

God the Father, give me hope. Help me to know that your hope is alive in me as I offer kindness, forgiveness, and tenderness to others. I seek the calm that comes from trusting in your hope and your healing presence.

I trust that your servant St. Jude walks with me and in all the blessings and challenges of my life, and intercedes on behalf of my petitions.

St. Jude, fill my heart with hope.

Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.

Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service.

Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.

Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.

Amen

Sanctity of Life Prayer

Oh God, Giver of life,
From the moment of conception protect this life and help us to recognize and guard its sanctity. From conception, we acknowledge that this life belongs to you and that to tamper with this life is to tamper with your holy plan. We step back in awe of your majesty and recognize that this life is not ours. We acknowledge your divine plan for this life and we remove our hands from your creation.

Saint Philip Neri's Story

Philip Neri was a sign of contradiction, combining popularity with piety against the background of a corrupt Rome and a disinterested clergy: the whole post-Renaissance malaise.

At an early age, Philip abandoned the chance to become a businessman, moved to Rome from Florence, and devoted his life and individuality to God. After three years of philosophy and theology studies, he gave up any thought of ordination. The next 13 years were spent in a vocation unusual at the time—that of a layperson actively engaged in prayer and the apostolate.

As the Council of Trent (1545-63) was reforming the Church on a doctrinal level, Philip's appealing personality was winning him friends from all levels of society, from beggars to cardinals. He rapidly gathered around himself a group of laypersons won over by his audacious spirituality. Initially, they met as an informal prayer and discussion group, and also served poor people in Rome.

At the urging of his confessor, Philip was ordained a priest and soon became an outstanding confessor himself, gifted with the knack of piercing the pretenses and illusions of others, though always in a charitable manner and often with a joke. He arranged talks, discussions, and prayers for his penitents in a room above the church. He sometimes led "excursions" to other churches, often with music and a picnic on the way.

Some of Philip's followers became priests and lived together in community. This was the beginning of the Oratory, the religious institute he founded. A feature of their life was a daily afternoon service of four informal talks, with vernacular hymns and prayers. Giovanni Palestrina was one of Philip's followers, and composed music for the services. The Oratory was finally approved after suffering through a period of accusations of being an assembly of heretics, where laypersons preached and sang vernacular hymns!

Philip's advice was sought by many of the prominent figures of his day. He is one of the influential figures of the Counter-Reformation, mainly for converting to personal holiness many of the influential people within the Church itself. His characteristic virtues were humility and gaiety.

After spending a day hearing confessions and receiving visitors, Philip Neri suffered a hemorrhage and died on the feast of Corpus Christi in 1595. He was beatified in 1615 and canonized in 1622. Three centuries later, Cardinal John Henry Newman founded the first English-speaking house of the Oratory in London.

Reflection

Many people wrongly feel that such an attractive and jocular personality as Philip's cannot be combined with an intense spirituality. Philip's life melts our rigid, narrow views of piety. His approach to sanctity was truly catholic, all-embracing, and accompanied by a good laugh. Philip always wanted his followers to become not less but more human through their striving for holiness.
