Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

July 3rd 2022

Is 66: 10-14c / Ps 66: 1-7,16, 20 / Gal 6:14-18 / Lk 10: 1-12, 17-20

As Christ in our Gospel reading sent the seventy-two other disciples to preach the Good News of salvation, he also calls us to share in the task of evangelization. Whatever be our situation and status in life, whether we are parents, teachers, employers, employees, professionals or students, we are also being sent by Christ to be workers in his vineyard. It is erroneous to think that discipleship belongs exclusively to priests and nuns. By virtue of our baptism and confirmation, we inherently share the mission of Christ.

We become his disciples by being learners and imitators of Christ who is our Teacher, and we become his apostles by being sent by our Lord to represent him before other people.

The document on the laity of the Second Vatican Council stated that "there are innumerable opportunities open to the laity for the exercise of their apostolate of making the Gospel known. The very testimony of their Christian life, and good works done in a supernatural spirit, have the power to draw all to belief and to God" (No. 6).

You are not simply a father, mother, lawyer, doctor, engineer, businessman, employee, etc. But you are, and supposed to be, a Christian father, a Christian mother, a Christian professional, a Christian employee, a Christian student, etc. To be known simply as someone else does not distinguish us from those who do not accept Christ. The difficult question then is: "What's the use of being Christians if by being so does not really make a difference in my life and in the people around me?"

In Genesis, "Noah was a just man, blameless among the people of his time, a man who walked with God" (6:9). Noah and his family were saved from the destruction of the flood. Out of his three sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth, seventy-two people started to spread all over the earth after the flood (cf. Gen. 10:1-32). Those seventy-two represent all the peoples of the nations.

Christ appointed the seventy-two in our Gospel to be part of the workers who would gather what was scattered, would bring back those who were lost, would assemble those who will be part of the Ark of Salvation.

Yes, the kingdom of God is at hand. Let us help in bringing people to the kingdom by being known as Christians before anything else. After all, you and I are part of that.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Protection Against Hurricanes

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes and illnesses which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.
Amen.

Mary Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.
Amen

July 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

God's plan for human love and sexuality is good news and calls married couples to live with Christ-like love in sacramental marriage. While this call to authentic love is free, total, faithful and fruitful, the desire and need to manage human fertility remains part of the human experience. In response, the Church proposes Natural Family Planning (NFP) as a modern, scientific method available to couples for planning their families by enabling them to participate in God's creative action without breaking the inseparable link between the unitive and procreative meanings of the conjugal (marital) act. As NFP becomes a way of life, the couple cooperates with each other and God in responsibly planning their family without the devastating spiritual and physical harm caused by artificial contraceptive methods.

Each year, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) sponsors a national educational campaign called Natural Family Planning Awareness week, to highlight the good news about God's perfect plan for human love and sexuality. This year, Natural Family Planning (NFP) Awareness week will be observed from July 24 through July 30 with the theme: Called to the Joy of Love, Natural Family Planning, Supporting God's gifts of love and life in marriage.

During this week, we also observe the anniversary of Pope Paul VI's papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (July 25) that articulates Catholic beliefs about human sexuality, conjugal love, and responsible parenthood. This week also marks the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne (July 26), the parents of the Blessed Mother and grandparents of her Son Jesus. Pope Francis has also designated that feast as World Grandparents' Day, a fitting commemoration during National NFP Awareness Week to highlight the importance of family and the wonderful blessing of children in our lives.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate those married couples who live out their marriage commitment to free, total, faithful and fruitful love. I encourage all married couples and those preparing for marriage to reflect on their current or future marriages and how they can authentically and responsibly fulfill their commitment to fruitful love. If you have not yet considered NFP or have questions, I encourage you to investigate and discover the richness of NFP. Please visit our website at www.diocesepb.org/naturalfamilyplanning for resources and additional information or call 561-775-9557.

With every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Saint Thomas the Apostle's Story

Poor Thomas! He made one remark and has been branded as “Doubting Thomas” ever since. But if he doubted, he also believed. He made what is certainly the most explicit statement of faith in the New Testament: “My Lord and My God!” and, in so expressing his faith, gave Christians a prayer that will be said till the end of time. He also occasioned a compliment from Jesus to all later Christians: “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” (John 20:29).

Thomas should be equally well-known for his courage. Perhaps what he said was impetuous—since he ran, like the rest, at the showdown—but he can scarcely have been insincere when he expressed his willingness to die with Jesus. The occasion was when Jesus proposed to go to Bethany after Lazarus had died. Since Bethany was near Jerusalem, this meant walking into the very midst of his enemies and to almost certain death. Realizing this, Thomas said to the other apostles, “Let us also go to die with him” (John 11:16b).

Reflection

Thomas shares the lot of Peter the impetuous, James and John, the “sons of thunder,” Philip and his foolish request to see the Father—indeed all the apostles in their weakness and lack of understanding. We must not exaggerate these facts, however, for Christ did not pick worthless men. But their human weakness again points up the fact that holiness is a gift of God, not a human creation; it is given to ordinary men and women with weaknesses; it is God who gradually transforms the weaknesses into the image of Christ, the courageous, trusting, and loving one.
