Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)
July 24th 2022
Gen 18: 20-32 / Ps 138: 1-3, 6-8 / Col 2: 12-14 / Lk 11: 1-13

The need to pray, however, is not only for saints. It is for all of us. If Jesus who is God himself and always in communion with the Father prayed, we who need prayer badly must take praying seriously.

The persistence of the friend in our Gospel reading gives us the encouragement to intensify our prayers. If the unwilling householder can be prevailed upon to supply the needs of his friend on account of his perseverance in asking, how much more will the loving God give to us what we need? "If you, with all your sins," Jesus said, "know how to give your children good things, how much will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" (Lk. 11:13).

Fyodor Dostoevsky, the famous Russian writer, declared: "Every time you pray, if your prayers are sincere, there will still be a new feeling and new meaning in it which will give you fresh courage and direction, and you will understand that prayer is an education."

We ask— an education of what? An education of dependence and trust in God as a child to his father. God is not only a creator and we are simply his creatures; he is not only a king and we are merely his subjects. If we enter into the discipleship of Christ, we can learn to perceive God as a Father and we as his children. We therefore immerse ourselves into an intimate relationship with God and with one another.

Gregory Baum in his book "Faith and Doctrine" wrote: "Believing that God is Father changes the way we experience life. We acquire a new awareness of ourselves and of our relationship to reality. To believe that God is Father initiates me into a new consciousness of my self as son. I have a destiny. This destiny makes me someone. I rejoice in myself."

"To believe that God is Father means to believe that men are destined to be brothers and sisters, and that salvation is at work in their history. God revealing himself as Father discloses a new self-awareness - I am son - A daughter a new experience of the world - 'we are a family.

Pray as a child. Pray like a child. Pray as brothers and sisters. Lord, teach us to pray as a family.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Protection Against Hurricanes

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes and illnesses which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.
Amen.

Mary Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.
Amen.

Message From Msgr. Badia's Family

Dear members of Monsignor Badia's Emmanuel family,

We were touched by the love that you have all shown, not only for our uncle but also for us, as we came to mourn his loss. Thank you for embracing him and bringing him into your community.

Uncle Len loved to say Mass - not only for the obvious spiritual reasons, but also for the direct connection it gave him to you. He was a gifted speaker and doing so gave him great joy. He believed that the Word should make sense to everyone, and he put it in a way that would allow us to apply it to our personal lives. This was evidence of his deep love of teaching. It is easy to picture him as an apostle going from place to place to attract, enlighten and spread the Word. He was a natural story-teller - and he reveled in sharing personal stories and insights not only in Church but whenever he was with a group of people or acquaintances. He always tried to add some humor - we will miss his hearty laugh!

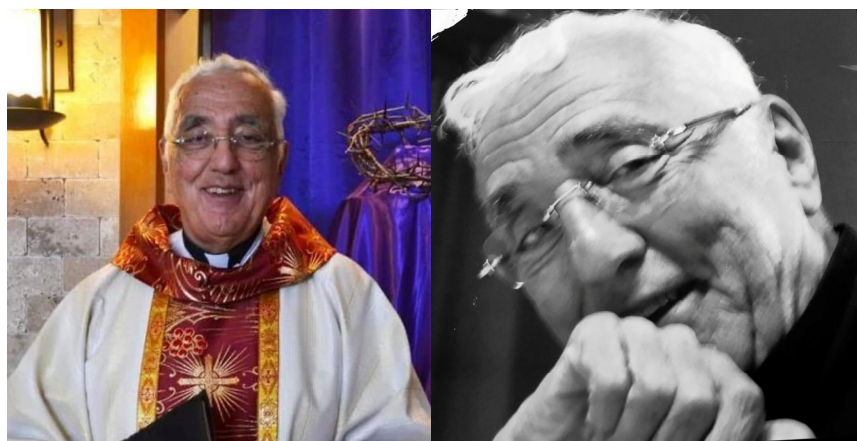

In addition to his love of teaching, he had a profound love of learning. He not only looked to traditional means of acquiring information, but also learned from the life lessons of those with whom he came in contact. He was a lifelong Yankees fan (as you well know!), and he loved going to the casino. He was, after all, a man who loved family, friends, good food, and fun.

So many of you reached out to us, sharing your stories and your sadness - we thank you for your kind words and support. You were truly his family too.

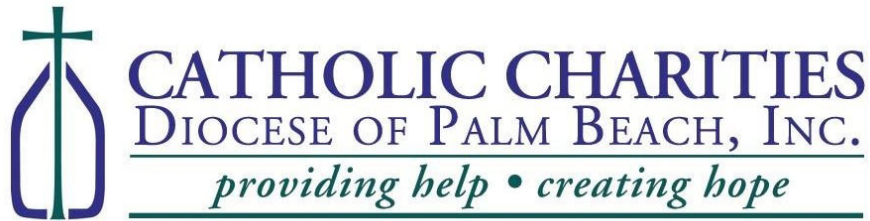

Know that our hearts, like yours, are full of grief. May your positive memories of him give you solace and ease the pain. We know that he will forever be in your hearts.

We wish you peace and love,

Madeline Turan, Christine Bianco, Leonard Badia, and our families

Ladies Guild

Hello fellow donors,

Thank you for another amazing donor turnout, considering it's mid-summer; Emmanuel snowbirds are enjoying northern climes, and families on vacations....23 people were registered and 4 were deferred which gave us 19 units collected. Some people can be deferred for any number of reasons such as low iron, travel outside the United States etc..

Remember, each donation can save up to three lives so that means that 57 patients could benefit from the lifesaving efforts of blood donors at Emmanuel Catholic Church. With exceptional gratitude, we thank you for your lifesaving efforts.

Saint Joachim and Anne' Story

In the Scriptures, Matthew and Luke furnish a legal family history of Jesus, tracing ancestry to show that Jesus is the culmination of great promises. Not only is his mother's family neglected, we also know nothing factual about them except that they existed. Even the names "Joachim" and "Anne" come from a legendary source written more than a century after Jesus died.

The heroism and holiness of these people however, is inferred from the whole family atmosphere around Mary in the Scriptures. Whether we rely on the legends about Mary's childhood or make guesses from the information in the Bible, we see in her a fulfillment of many generations of prayerful persons, herself steeped in the religious traditions of her people.

The strong character of Mary in making decisions, her continuous practice of prayer, her devotion to the laws of her faith, her steadiness at moments of crisis, and her devotion to her relatives—all indicate a close-knit, loving family that looked forward to the next generation even while retaining the best of the past.

Joachim and Anne—whether these are their real names or not—represent that entire quiet series of generations who faithfully perform their duties, practice their faith, and establish an atmosphere for the coming of the Messiah, but remain obscure.

Reflection

This is the "feast of grandparents." It reminds grandparents of their responsibility to establish a tone for generations to come: They must make the traditions live and offer them as a promise to little children. But the feast has a message for the younger generation as well. It reminds the young that older people's greater perspective, depth of experience, and appreciation of life's profound rhythms are all part of a wisdom not to be taken lightly or ignored.
