WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As one parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

04 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

AUGUST 28, 2022

SIR 3:17-18,20,28-29 | PS 68:4-7, 10-11 | HEB 12:18-19, 22-24A | LK 14:1, 7-14

Our Lord teaches us in our Gospel reading today two instances whereby we learn the absurdity of pride and the need for the virtue of humility.

When he observed that the invited guests at a wedding banquet were competing with each other in getting the first seats, he took the occasion of instructing them: pride has no place in the kingdom of God. This means avoiding attitudes of self-importance and of superiority to others.

People like the Pharisees and scribes have a distorted sense and estimation of their goodness. They assure themselves of the right to special places of honor in heaven compared to others. The Pharisees and scribes thought that they are not only the children of Abraham, but that they can likewise appease God with their theatrical goodness done in the spirit of impressing people and the desire to receive praises. In real terms, however, their hearts are full of evil desires and wickedness.

The model of humility is Christ who became the servant among the servants. Although he is king, he came "not to be served but to serve and to give his life to redeem many" (Mt. 20-28). St. Paul in his letter to the Philippians declared: though being divine in nature, he did not cling to his equality with God, but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave ... He humbled himself by being obedient to death, death on the cross... That is why God exalted him and gave him a name above all other names..." (2:6-11).

If this fundamental lesson of humility becomes the cornerstone of all our actions, we will have no difficulty in understanding others. Conversion ... Repentance ... Obedience ... Compassion .. Service ... Forgiveness are consequential fruits of such humility of the heart.

And yes, true giving. The charity of a humble person stems from an uncontrollable outflow of love. We give not out of our selfish interest, not out of our feeling of superiority nor to pander the acclamations of men, but in imitation of the generosity of God. Men must give from a grateful heart aware that they have nothing that they have that they have not received from God.

St. Paul reminds us: "You know well the generosity of Christ Jesus, our Lord. Although he was rich, he made himself poor to make you rich through his poverty" (2 Cor. 8:9).

Indeed, Christ said in our Gospel today, "Everyone who exalts himself shall be humbled and he who humbles himself shall be exalted." For us who aspire to be included "in the resurrection of the just," let us strive to make this paradox of the kingdom the underlying principle of our life.

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

PROTECTION AGAINST HURRICANES

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes and illnesses which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Amen.

Mary Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

PRAYER FOR THE PAVILION PROJECT

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

12 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

SAINT AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO

FEAST DAY: AUGUST 28

A Christian at 33, a priest at 36, a bishop at 41: Many people are familiar with the biographical sketch of Augustine of Hippo, sinner turned saint. But to get to really know the man is a rewarding experience.

There quickly surfaces the intensity with which he lived his life, whether his path led away from or toward God. The tears of his mother, the instructions of Ambrose and, most of all, God himself speaking to him in the Scriptures, redirected Augustine's love of life to a life of love.

Having been so deeply immersed in creature-pride of life in his early days and having drunk deeply of its bitter dregs, it is not surprising that Augustine should have turned, with a holy fierceness, against the many demon-thrusts rampant in his day. His times were truly decadent: politically, socially, morally. He was both feared and loved, like the Master. The perennial criticism leveled against him: a fundamental rigorism.

In his day, Augustine providentially fulfilled the office of prophet. Like Jeremiah and other greats, he was hard-pressed but could not keep quiet. "I say to myself, I will not mention him/I will speak in his name no more/But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart/imprisoned in my bones/I grow weary holding it in/I cannot endure it" (Jeremiah 20:9).

Reflection

Augustine is still acclaimed and condemned in our day. He is a prophet for today, trumpeting the need to scrap escapisms and stand face-to-face with personal responsibility and dignity.
