WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

04 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

SEPTEMBER 18, 2022

AM 8:4-7 | PS 113:1-2, 4-8 | 1 TM 2:1-8 | LK 16:1-13

There is a true story of a hotel receptionist who was manning the front desk one stormy night. As the rain fell in torrents and the wind blew hard, a couple arrived at the hotel to ask for a room. The receptionist politely said, "I'm sorry, but all the rooms in this hotel are taken. However, I don't want to drive you away in this turbulent weather. If you don't mind, I'm offering my quarters in the basement. It is not as comfortable, but you can take refuge there tonight."

After one month, the receptionist got an unexpected long-distance call. It was from the man whom he had accommodated in his quarters. The man on the line made a surprising offer to him. He said, "I am making you the manager of one of my hotels. If you have been trustworthy in your job as a receptionist, I'm sure you will do as well as a manager."

The receptionist turned manager reportedly established the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York, one of the most famous and prestigious hotels in the world.

The story reveals the truth of the Gospel reading today: "If you can trust a man in little things, you can also trust him in great ones" (Lk. 16:10). To be faithful in doing the small responsibilities is the best proof of our fitness to be entrusted with a bigger task. No man will be promoted to a higher position unless he has proven his capability and integrity first in his small position. It is unlikely that one is given a great responsibility when one has been found incompetent in small ones.

Jesus extends this principle to eternity. If on this earth, we have to be faithful in our ordinary obligations to be raised to a higher office so then in order to earn heaven, we have to be trustworthy in our duties on earth. We are stewards in this world. We are in charge of things, so to speak, that are lent to us by God. Only if we can discharge wisely our duties and take proper care of the things of which we are only stewards shall we be deserving of the reward of eternal life.

Strictly speaking, our material possessions do not really belong to us. They belong to God. Their true value does not lie in the fact that we are keeping them, but in our using them toward the real treasure that shall last forever. The paradox of the kingdom is that what we have is not our real treasure, but what we gave away. The permanent lesson remains: if we are truly wise, we will build on things which we cannot lose. Our real treasures are not in things, but in God. If we set our hearts on this world we may lose sight of the world beyond this world. If our efforts are fixed on eternity, we will not be attached to the things of this world.

Jesus said, "No servant can serve two masters." If a man decides to serve the Lord, it means every moment of time and every ounce of energy are dedicated to God. It is a full-time arrangement. Serving God cannot be a part-time affair. Seeking the kingdom cannot be a spare-time job.

Remaining: $24,554.39

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

PROTECTION AGAINST HURRICANES

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes and illnesses which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

Mary Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

PRAYER FOR THE PAVILION PROJECT

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

40 Days for Life

In our 45th Street area, Presidential Women's center abortionists have terminated pregnancy at its 100 Northpoint Parkway location for 42 years.

Across the road, for over 20 years, more than 400 people have taken turns to stand and pray to end abortion there. This fall, we join the 40 Days for Life movement to engage every parish to use prayer fasting, peaceful vigil and community outreach to end abortion. We ask you to stand and pray in two hour shifts, at Presidential Women's Center. We welcome you to join us at any time from Sept. 28- Nov. 6 (Monday to Saturday 9am-5pm). Kindly pray over this invitation and consider joining us in this effort which has been in progress locally.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

12 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

SAINT JANUARIUS' STORY

FEAST DAY: SPETEMBER 19

Little is known about the life of Januarius. He is believed to have been martyred in the Emperor Diocletian's persecution of 305. Legend has it that Januarius and his companions were thrown to the bears in the amphitheater of Pozzuoli, but the animals failed to attack them. They were then beheaded, and Januarius' blood ultimately brought to Naples.

"A dark mass that half fills a hermetically sealed four-inch glass container, and is preserved in a double reliquary in the Naples cathedral as the blood of St. Januarius, liquefies 18 times during the year...Various experiments have been applied, but the phenomenon eludes natural explanation...."

[From the Catholic Encyclopedia]

Reflection

It is defined Catholic doctrine that miracles can happen and are recognizable. Problems arise, however, when we must decide whether an occurrence is unexplainable in natural terms, or merely unexplained. We do well to avoid an excessive credulity but, on the other hand, when even scientists speak about "probabilities" rather than "laws" of nature, it is something less than imaginative for Christians to think that God is too "scientific" to work extraordinary miracles to wake us up to the everyday miracles of sparrows and dandelions, raindrops and snowflakes.

Lumen Christi Scholarship Appeal

GUIDED BY CHRIST'S LIGHT

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito is pleased to announce the 2022-2023 Lumen Christi Scholarship Appeal theme is "Guided by Christ's Light."

The Catholic schools in the Diocese have a commitment and responsibility led by the Gospel message of Jesus Christ to teach the whole child in mind, body, and spirit. Our schools rich in Catholic values and tradition, aim to prepare leaders and stewards to shine the light of Christ throughout their lives and become beacons of hope for the future Church.

Please give generously to this appeal. One hundred percent of the net proceeds from your donation will fund tuition assistance scholarships allowing students in need the opportunity to attend our Catholic schools and ultimately receive a Christ-centered education.

Visit <https://www.diocesepb.org/lumen-christi> or scan the QR code to donate today!
