WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

04 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

SEPTEMBER 25, 2022

AM 6:1A, 4-7 | PS 146: 7-10 | 1 TM 6: 11-16 | LK 16: 19-31

We may have the impression that Christianity consists only of prohibitions. We are taught that "we should not do to others what we would not have them do to us." It is never difficult to follow this rule. How? By simple inaction. Many people may claim that they are not bad at all because they have not been cruel to anybody, they have not injured others, they have not been unjust, and they have not stolen from anyone. Yes, they are not bad. But the real question is: are they good?

We can be good not by merely avoiding the doing of bad things, but by doing good deeds. Christ said: "Do to others whatever you would that others do to you" (Mt. 7:12). This positive rule compels us not only to evade things or actions but to go out of our way to help others. We try to forgive as we wish to be forgiven, to understand as we wish to be understood, to help as we wish to be helped always, to love as we wish to be loved.

We might fulfill all that is required by the law, but we can only truly follow Christ by acting on the demands of love. As St. Augustine would say, "Love and do what you like."

What brought the rich man to hell was not what he did but what he did not do. He saw Lazarus in pain, and hungry, and there was no love that pierced his heart. Christ said: "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted" (Mt. 5:4). This beatitude does mean: blessed is the man who responds with love to the sufferings and the needs of others. Clearly, the rich man was indifferent, and he was not given comfort on his death. He who was not moved with compassion for his fellowmen was judged without mercy.

You may have heard the story of a rich man who did not receive a mansion in heaven. He complained to St. Peter: "This is unfair. I was living in a huge house during my earthly life, and you provide me here with a shanty even smaller than my dog's house." St. Peter replied: "I'm sorry. Don't blame us. That little and shaky hut is the only thing we could build out of the materials you sent us here."

We have learned another paradox of the kingdom: the poor will become rich before God; the selfish will lose everything. Our attitude towards wealth and the needs of others in this life can make or unmake our destiny when we die. Indeed, the kingdom of God is at hand!

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

PROTECTION AGAINST HURRICANES

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes and illnesses which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Amen.

Mary Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

PRAYER FOR THE PAVILION PROJECT

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

40 Days for Life

In our 45th Street area, Presidential Women's center abortionists have terminated pregnancy at its 100 Northpoint Parkway location for 42 years.

Across the road, for over 20 years, more than 400 people have taken turns to stand and pray to end abortion there. This fall, we join the 40 Days for Life movement to encourage every parish to use prayer fasting, peaceful vigil and community outreach to end abortion. We ask you to stand and pray in two hour shifts, at Presidential Women's Center.

We welcome you to join us at any time from

Sept. 28- Nov. 6 (Monday to Saturday 9am-5pm).

Kindly pray over this invitation and consider joining us in this effort which has been in progress locally.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

12 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

SAINT THÉRÈSE OF LISIEUX'S STORY

FEAST DAY: OCTOBER 1

"I prefer the monotony of obscure sacrifice to all ecstasies. To pick up a pin for love can convert a soul."

These are the words of Thérèse of Lisieux, a Carmelite nun called the "Little Flower," who lived a cloistered life of obscurity in the convent of Lisieux, France. And her preference for hidden sacrifice did indeed convert souls. Few saints of God are more popular than this young nun. Her autobiography, The Story of a Soul, is read and loved throughout the world. Thérèse Martin entered the convent at the age of 15 and died in 1897 at the age of 24. Life in a Carmelite convent is indeed uneventful and consists mainly of prayer and hard domestic work. But Thérèse possessed that holy insight that redeems the time, however dull that time may be. She saw in quiet suffering a redemptive suffering, suffering that was indeed her apostolate. Thérèse said she came to the Carmel convent "to save souls and pray for priests." And shortly before she died, she wrote: "I want to spend my heaven doing good on earth."

Thérèse was canonized in 1925. On October 19, 1997, Pope John Paul II proclaimed her a Doctor of the Church, the third woman to be so recognized in light of her holiness and the influence of her teaching on spirituality in the Church.

Her parents, Louis and Zélie, were beatified in 2008 and canonized in 2015.

Reflection

Thérèse has much to teach our age of the image, the appearance, the "self." We have become a dangerously self-conscious people, painfully aware of the need to be fulfilled, yet knowing we are not. Thérèse, like so many saints, sought to serve others, to do something outside herself, to forget herself in quiet acts of love. She is one of the great examples of the gospel paradox that we gain our life by losing it, and that the seed that falls to the ground must die in order to live.

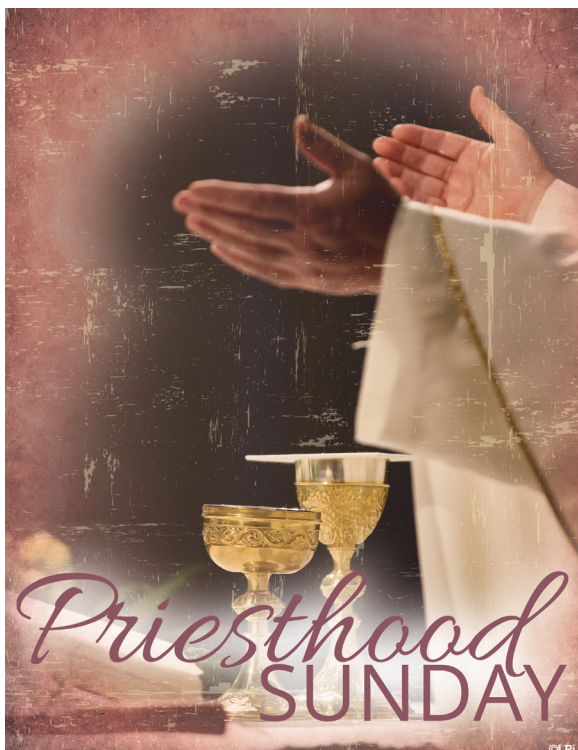

Preoccupation with self separates modern men and women from God, from their fellow human beings, and ultimately from themselves. We must re-learn to forget ourselves, to contemplate a God who draws us out of ourselves, and to serve others as the ultimate expression of selfhood. These are the insights of Saint Thérèse, and they are more valid today than ever.

NOTE TO PARENTS

Our greatest concern for our children should be that they grow to love God above all else.

Inviting all parents /grandparents to join Joanie Schneebaum on Sundays during the CCD classes for conversation and community .We will talk about ways to help you practice your faith, give you tools that will equip you to build strong faith filled relationships with your children and reflect on topics that matter in their lives.

Join us in Columbus Hall after the children's mass each week and 11:30 during the later CCD class schedule.

We look forward to seeing you there.
