WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

04 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

OCTOBER 23, 2022

SIR 35:12-14, 16-18 | PS 34:2-3, 17-19, 23 | 2 TM 4:6-8, 16-18 | LK 18:1-8

Competition may be healthy exercise in the business world. This is particularly true in enterprises dealing with products and services. Companies will lock horns against one another in producing better products and this can result in cheaper and superior commodities. Firms will outvie one another in providing fast and effective deliveries, and this can facilitate prompt and competent service. The consumers, the end-users, will definitely benefit from such corporate rivalries. The opposite, however, happens in the spiritual realm when people start competing and comparing with one another. Anyone who boasts of himself before God about his goodness, while at the same time looks with contempt on others, becomes blinded. It makes a person fall into a trap of seeing only his good works and judging others on their shortcomings.

This is what happened to the Pharisee in our Gospel reading today. He felt his perfection before God as he prayed in the temple. He used God as a jumping board for his own glory and took the credit to himself for being worthy of praise. He did not really pray for he did not ask for anything from God.) He was a person who was wrapped up in his own self-image and distorted perception of righteousness.

Nobody can really say a true prayer to God with such arrogance and pride. We cannot be truly good by our own efforts. It is only through the gift of God's grace that we can respond to the possibility of doing authentic goodness. It is on our bended knees that we can admit with humility that we have our many failings and realize that we always need God's mercy.

If we despise others, when we think we are superior to them, there is the danger that we envy them when we cannot get ahead of them.

St. Paul the Apostle said: "How could I venture to equate or compare myself with people who proclaim their own merits? Fools! They measure themselves with their own measure and compare themselves with themselves. As for me, I will not boast beyond measure, for I will not go past the limits that the God of true measure has set for me; He gave the measuring stick when he made me set foot in your place" (2 Cor 10: 12-13).

The Pharisee in our Gospel met all what was demanded by the law and even more; he fasted twice a week when it was supposed to be done once a year only; he tithed even on the insignificant things when it was to be exacted only from the main products, but there was no word on his acts of kindness, charity, justice and love.

The tax collector, on the other hand, did not even dare "to raise his eyes to heaven. All he did was to beat his breast and say, 'O God, be merciful to me, a sinner,' He came home justified. His awareness of his sins and self-despising and confession won for him the acceptance of God.

If we set our lives and what we have done beside the life and deeds of Christ, all that is left for us to say is, "God be merciful to me - a sinner.

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

PROTECTION AGAINST HURRICANES

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes and illnesses which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Amen.

Mary Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

PRAYER FOR THE PAVILION PROJECT

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Volunteers needed in the gift shop. We are looking for people who are willing to be in the giftshop on Saturdays 3:30pm to 7:00pm and the first two Sundays of the month 10am to 1:30pm. Please contact Joan at the parish office during the week.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

In our 45th Street area, Presidential Women's center abortionists have terminated pregnancy at its 100 Northpoint Parkway location for 42 years.

Across the road, for over 20 years, more than 400 people have taken turns to stand and pray to end abortion there. This fall, we join the 40 Days for Life movement to encourage every parish to use prayer fasting, peaceful vigil and community outreach to end abortion. We ask you to stand and pray in two hour shifts, at Presidential Women's Center.

We welcome you to join us at any time from Sept. 28- Nov. 6 (Monday to Saturday 9am-5pm).

Kindly pray over this invitation and consider joining us in this effort which has been in progress locally.

Please contact Mary Ellen Chajkowski at 561-410-4337 or email palmbeach_40days@yahoo.com

SAINT OF THE WEEK

12 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

SAINT ANTHONY MARY CLARET'S STORY

FEAST DAY: OCTOBER 24

Saint Anthony Mary Claret is also known as the "spiritual father of Cuba." He was born in Salient in Catalonia, Spain, in 1807. He became a weaver, like his father, and was very talented. But he studied in his spare time to become a priest and was ordained in 1835. In 1849 the saint founded the Claretians, a religious institute of missionaries, and a companion order of women religious who served as teachers for girls.

From 1850 to 1857 he served as Archbishop of Santiago de Cuba, Cuba, where he worked diligently to reform both clergy and laity. He opposed concubinage and instructed black slaves, and championed family-owned farms instead of the mass farming of a sugar cash crop. These stances were vehemently opposed by many, and Saint Anthony was the target of assassins.

He was recalled to act as Queen Isabella II's confessor, a duty he reluctantly agreed to, with the exceptions that he would reside away from the court, attending the household only to hear confessions and instruct the children. While in Spain he founded the Religious Publishing House and wrote or published 200 Catholic books and pamphlets. He went into exile to France with the Queen's household during the Spanish Revolution of 1868.

The saint returned to Rome to Participate in Vatican I where he defended the infallibility of the Pope. He died in France in 1870 and was canonized in 1950 by Pope Pius XII.

Reflection

Jesus foretold that those who are truly his representatives would suffer the same persecution as he did. Besides 14 attempts on his life, Anthony had to undergo such a barrage of the ugliest slander that the very name Claret became a byword for humiliation and misfortune. The powers of evil do not easily give up their prey. No one needs to go looking for persecution. All we need to do is be sure we suffer because of our genuine faith in Christ, not for our own whims and lack of prudence.

Saint Anthony Mary Claret is a Patron Saint of:

Weavers

We would like to welcome our new Lectors Anthony Ivonelli and Alyce Corish! We are still in need of new volunteers to become lectors and Eucharistic Ministers. If you are interested please contact Fr. Theo in the Parish Office.

The practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore [Judas Maccabeus] made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin." From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic Sacrifice in so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God. (CCC 1032)

Please join us in our novena (9) of masses for our loved ones who have gone ahead of us. All Souls Novena envelopes are located at the exit doors of the church. Please return them before November 2nd. Thank you!

Sunday, October 23 is World Mission Sunday
Please support the mission of the Church in spreading the Gospel.

Candy Corn Sunday School Lesson

Psalms 104:34 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.

1 John 5:7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

Have you ever looked at a piece of candy corn? God is like this piece of candy. He is so sweet, and full of goodness. The candy corn comes in three colored parts-White, Orange, and Yellow.

God comes in three parts too- The Father, The Son, And The Holy Spirit. Three parts, but yet he's still one. This might be a little confusing to you, but let me explain. God was always there. He has a son named Jesus that he sent to earth through a woman named Mary. He came into the world to die for our sins. Jesus made a way for us to ask for forgiveness so we could go to Heaven when we die. After Jesus died on the cross and rose again he went back up and when he did he left the Holy Spirit. He also called it the comforter. We have the Holy Spirit here with us. So just like the candy corn comes in three parts, it's still one piece of candy. Just like God is one God, but yet he comes in three parts.
