WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

04 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

OCTOBER 30, 2022

WIS 11:22-12:2 | PS 145:1-2, 8-11, 13, 14 | 2 THES 1:11-2:2 | LK 19:1-10

Zacchaeus was a wealthy man, but he was lonely. He had everything, but he was not happy. No doubt he was at the top of his profession, but he was despised by his fellowmen. He was a tax-collector, and he was regarded as notoriously dishonest as well as a traitor by his own people. Collecting taxes on behalf of the Romans, the colonizers of the Jews, did not stand well with people who were rabid nationalists.

The old adage about money not buying happiness was once again proven true in Zacchaeus. A writer in the Wall Street Journal called money "an article which may be used as a universal passport to everywhere except heaven, and as a universal provider of everything except happiness."

Zacchaeus wanted to relocate his lost soul, his lost person, his lost identity, his lost being. He needed someone who will compassionately understand his situation instead of condemning it outrightly. He had heard of Jesus who welcomed sinners and tax-collectors like him. In the midst of desperation, he had the courage to face the bleak criticism of people to reach out after the love of God.

He climbed a sycamore tree. He forgot his status. Only a child can unashamedly do what he did. But it was exactly in climbing a tree that proved his resolve to be a child of God again. When Jesus came to the place, he stopped ... he looked up... he must have seen his begging eyes ... he must have heard the pounding of his heart thirsty for love ... and he said: "Zacchaeus, come down quickly. I want to be your guest."

It must have been Jesus' way of saying, "Do not be afraid to come down from your exalted status. I'm here to be the guest in your lonely heart, to be a healer of your lost life.

Jesus must have smiled. He knew that he found once again what was lost. He knew Zacchaeus regained his true identity, his goodness as a person, the purity of his soul, the love in his heart. Jesus said to him: "Today salvation has come to this house, for this is what it means to be a son of Abraham. The Son of Man has come to search out and save what was lost."

Zacchaeus lost his wealth but found honor. He lost his belongings but found happiness. He lost his comforts but found his dignity. It is this dignity as a child of God who was saved by Christ that made him find his destiny. It is this destiny that we should not lose even as we struggle against the temptations of the world. Let us not go into situation that Zacchaeus left behind. Let us rather focus our hearts to what he has found in Christ.

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

PROTECTION AGAINST HURRICANES

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes and illnesses which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Amen.

Mary Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

PRAYER FOR THE PAVILION PROJECT

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

The practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore [Judas Maccabeus] made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin." From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic Sacrifice in so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God. Please join us in our novena (9) of masses for our loved ones who have gone ahead of us. All Souls Novena envelopes are located at the exit doors of the church. Please return them before November 2nd. Thank you!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Who are the "Blessed Ones?" They are the ones who have been washed by the blood of the Lamb, those who have remained faithful under trial, those who mirrored the face of the One true Blessed, Jesus Christ. Witnesses - who, like Christ, have offered their lives for truth, justice, charity, and peace.

The Catholic Church celebrates a great Solemnity on this day as she recognizes the "144,000" - the symbolic number (12 x 12 x 1000 or simply "a great multitude") of the saved from all nations and from all generations. Among these multitude of Saints are not only the "canonized" but also the many more anonymous or unknowns saints, even from our own families! All who strive to live the Beatitudes set by Christ in the Gospel are on the way to becoming "Blessed!"

Each of us is called to be counted among the "Blessed." St. Therese of Lisieux, our modern day Saint, challenges us to desire to become Saints, for only by being Saints can we be counted amongst the Saved!

Rosary Month

October is the month of the Rosary!
We encourage you and your family

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

FEAST DAY: NOVEMBER 2

The Church has encouraged prayer for the dead from the earliest times as an act of Christian charity. "If we had no care for the dead," Augustine noted, "we would not be in the habit of praying for them." Yet pre-Christian rites for the deceased retained such a strong hold on the superstitious imagination that a liturgical commemoration was not observed until the early Middle Ages, when monastic communities began to mark an annual day of prayer for the departed members. In the middle of the 11th century, Saint Odilo, abbot of Cluny, France, decreed that all Cluniac monasteries offer special prayers and sing the Office for the Dead on November 2, the day after the feast of All Saints. The custom spread from Cluny and was finally adopted throughout the Roman Church.

The theological underpinning of the feast is the acknowledgment of human frailty. Since few people achieve perfection in this life but, rather, go to the grave still scarred with traces of sinfulness, some period of purification seems necessary before a soul comes face-to-face with God. The Council of Trent affirmed this purgatory state and insisted that the prayers of the living can speed the process of purification.

Superstition easily clung to the observance.

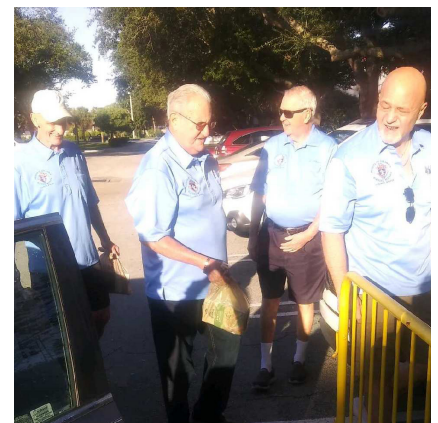

Medieval popular belief held that the souls in purgatory could appear on this day in the form of witches, toads or will-o'-the-wisps. Graveside food offerings supposedly eased the rest of the dead.

Observances of a more religious nature have survived. These include public processions or private visits to cemeteries and decorating graves with flowers and lights. This feast is observed with great fervor in Mexico.

Reflection

Whether or not one should pray for the dead is one of the great arguments which divide Christians. Appalled by the abuse of indulgences in the Church of his day, Martin Luther rejected the concept of purgatory. Yet prayer for a loved one is, for the believer, a way of erasing any distance, even death. In prayer we stand in God's presence in the company of someone we love, even if that person has gone before us into death.

I would like to thank you for all your support to our Food Drive last weekend, You made a difference in the lives of our sisters and brothers who are in the most need. Special thank you to all the members of the Knights of Columbus.

Saints and Souls

We are connected as a body of believers with those that are in Heaven, those in purgatory, and those here on earth.

- When we are in Heaven, we are called the Church Triumphant
 - Everyone here is a saint, because they are in the presence of God
- In Purgatory, we are called the Church Expectant
 - These souls will one day be saints after being purified
- Here on earth, we are called the Church Militant
 - We have souls and hope to one day be a saint

We celebrate All Saint's Day on November 1st, and All Soul's Day on November 2nd.
What is the difference?

We believe that as a Church we can work together for the good of the Kingdom. The saints in Heaven can pray for us, and we can pray for the souls in purgatory.

"In the communion of saints, 'a perennial [ongoing] link of charity exists between the faithful who have already reached their heavenly home, those who are expiating their sins in purgatory and those who are still pilgrims on earth. Between them there is, too, an abundant exchange of all good things.'"
