02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

04 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

NOVEMBER 6, 2022

MC 7:1-2, 9-14 | PS 17:1, 5-6, 8, 15 | 2 THES 2:16-3:5 | LK 20:27-38

The Sadducees, mainly composed of aristocrats, do not believe in the resurrection of the dead, in angels and spirits. They wanted to ridicule Jesus' preaching about life after death by asking him about who would be the husband in heaven of the woman who was married to seven different men in her earthly life. They based their speculative case from the levirate marriage contained in Deuteronomy (25:5-10), which prescribed that "if a man's brother dies leaving a wife and no child, the brother should marry the widow and raise posterity to his brother."

Jesus answered them: "The children of this age marry and are given in marriage, but those judged worthy of a place in the age to come and of the resurrection from the dead do not. They become like angels and are no longer liable to death." Marriage may be necessary in this world for the preservation of the human race, but in heaven, it is no longer needed, for the just will live as glorified children of God.

Since the Sadducees themselves invoke the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Jesus said that "God is not the God of the dead but of the living." Abraham, Isaac and Jacob are alive in the bosom of God.

The Sadducees were people who centered their notion of the afterlife around the word "Sheol," meaning the grave. What was better according to them was to live on earth than in the grave, which explains that a long life was seen as a reward of God and a short life was a punishment.

This kind of belief makes our life a burden and a misery. Like the Sadducees, who were mostly wealthy, we might not be able to transcend our worldly attachments and sufferings.

St. Paul said: "If Christ has not been raised then our preaching is useless and your believing is useless... If Christ has not been raised, you are still in your sins. And what is more serious, all who have died in Christ have perished. If our hope in Christ has been for this life only, we are the most unfortunate of all people" (1 Cor. 15:14, 17-19).

The resurrection of Christ is the very foundation of our belief as Christians. Our life here is just a transition to our glorious destiny. Our citizenship in heaven begins now as we commit ourselves to our second birth, for "our present perishable nature must put on imperishability and this mortal nature must put on immortality.

Some people say that there are things that make death difficult. For us Christians, the resurrection of Christ and the promise of our own resurrection make even the difficult things of this life meaningful. We live this meaning now as we begin our journey towards the life that lasts forever. Let us begin now that assurance of forever.

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

PROTECTION AGAINST HURRICANES

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes and illnesses which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Amen.

Mary Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

PRAYER FOR THE PAVILION PROJECT

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

SAINT MARTIN OF TOURS STORY

FEAST DAY: NOVEMBER 11

A conscientious objector who wanted to be a monk; a monk who was maneuvered into being a bishop; a bishop who fought paganism as well as pleaded for mercy to heretics—such was Martin of Tours, one of the most popular of saints and one of the first not to be a martyr.

Born of pagan parents in what is now Hungary, and raised in Italy, this son of a veteran was forced at the age of 15 to serve in the army. Martin became a Christian catechumen and was baptized when he was 18. It was said that he lived more like a monk than a soldier. At 23, he refused a war bonus and told his commander: “I have served you as a soldier; now let me serve Christ. Give the bounty to those who are going to fight. But I am a soldier of Christ and it is not lawful for me to fight.” After great difficulties, he was discharged and went to be a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers.

He was ordained an exorcist and worked with great zeal against the Arians. Martin became a monk, living first at Milan and later on a small island. When Hilary was restored to his see following his exile, Martin returned to France and established what may have been the first French monastery near Poitiers. He lived there for 10 years, forming his disciples and preaching throughout the countryside.

The people of Tours demanded that he become their bishop. Martin was drawn to that city by a ruse—the need of a sick person—and was brought to the church, where he reluctantly allowed himself to be consecrated bishop. Some of the consecrating bishops thought his rumpled appearance and unkempt hair indicated that he was not dignified enough for the office.

Along with Saint Ambrose, Martin rejected Bishop Ithacius’s principle of putting heretics to death—as well as the intrusion of the emperor into such matters. He prevailed upon the emperor to spare the life of the heretic Priscillian. For his efforts, Martin was accused of the same heresy, and Priscillian was executed after all. Martin then pleaded for a cessation of the persecution of Priscillian’s followers in Spain. He still felt he could cooperate with Ithacius in other areas, but afterwards his conscience troubled him about this decision.

As death approached, Martin’s followers begged him not to leave them. He prayed, “Lord, if your people still need me, I do not refuse the work. Your will be done.”

Reflection

Martin’s worry about cooperation with evil reminds us that almost nothing is either all black or all white. The saints are not creatures of another world: They face the same perplexing decisions that we do. Any decision of conscience always involves some risk. If we choose to go north, we may never know what would have happened had we gone east, west, or south. A hyper-cautious withdrawal from all perplexing situations is not the virtue of prudence; it is in fact, a bad decision, for “not to decide is to decide.”

GOSPEL

In today's Gospel Jesus talked about what you will be like one day in heaven. God made you to be his special child. There is no one else like you. If you truly love God with all of your heart, you will never be apart from him. Even when your body dies, you will still be alive with God. In heaven, God will give you a new body, like an angel. You will live forever. Even in your new body, you will still be God's own special child.

MISSION

I will pray for those who are in danger whenever I hear a siren.
