WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

04 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

DECEMBER 18, 2022

IS 7:10-14 | PS 24:1-6 | ROM 1:1-7 | MT 1:18-24

In the Gospel, God introduces Joseph into the mystery of the Incarnation. Like any other human being, Joseph at first experiences confusion, fear, and pain. But when the mystery of Mary's pregnancy is explained to him, he welcomes it and obediently takes his role in relation to Mary and her Child.

Joseph becomes our model as we approach the mysteries and the manifold challenges of faith and life. Joseph, man of discernment. When Mary is found to be with child which, to Joseph, can only appear to be the fruit of her infidelity to their betrothal she faces the prospect of being charged with adultery. If Joseph chooses not to bring her to public trial, Mary may escape stoning but not a lifetime of public bickering. Being a "righteous man," Joseph is inclined to follow the Law of Moses that prescribes punishment. Yet, he is also solicitous of Mary's welfare. He thus tempers his "justice" with mercy. He will divorce Mary but "quietly"; he will not bring her to judgment. This decision is the fruit of his agonized discernment.

Discernment enables us to carefully examine the "stirrings" of our emotions and of our soul, and their consequences on our lives and those of others. It challenges us to see ourselves as persons "wrapped in mystery." There is always something nobler, greater ahead of us.

The coming of God's light. God rescues Joseph from his anguish and confusion. In a dream, an angel explains to him the mystery of Mary's motherhood. Then he is told to take Mary home as his wife and provide security for her and her Child. He is also to guard the mystery of the Child, born of the Holy Spirit, and destined to save his people from their sins.

Faith does not assure us full comprehension of the mysteries of life. Rather, faith sustains and strengthens us as we face life's complexities and challenges. God assures us of his "light" through discernment, prayer, reflection on his Word, and advice of well-meaning people. In the process, we gain wisdom and understanding of our lives.

Everything, of course, is a grace from God. But we also see that God waits for our decisions too. When He sees that we are trying to do our best—to do what is right—He blesses us even more. Joseph's life is a good example of this.

Acting on God's Word. Like Mary who gives her fiat to the message of the angel Gabriel, Joseph acts upon God's word with urgency and decisiveness. He takes Mary home as his wife. When the Child is born, Joseph "names" him, accepts him as his very own, and provides for him a loving ambiance of family and home.

 Amount Made: $131,030.61
 Remaining: $18,969.39

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

ANGELUS

V/. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary,
R/. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you;
blessed are you among women,
and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners
now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

V/. Behold the handmaid of the Lord,
R/. Be it done unto me according to your Word.
Hail Mary...

V/. And the Word was made flesh,
R/. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

V/. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God,
R/. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. Pour forth, we beseech you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts: that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an Angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE PAVILION PROJECT

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

10 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

PARISH FAMILY DAY

On Sunday, December 18, 2022, the 4th Sunday of Advent we will be having our annual Family Day. It is typically celebrated on the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph but Christmas this year falls on Sunday and the feast of the Holy Family falls on Friday, December 30th. We encourage all families, especially with children, to participate in this wonderful event on Parish Family day as we build strong and faith-filled families. It will start with the 10:30am mass in the church. Food and drinks will be served after the mass followed by fun and games (soccer challenge, basketball free throw, etc.). I would like to thank the committee of Family Life and Youth, the committee of Education (Religious Education), and our Pastoral Council for making this Great Event happen.

Special thanks to the members of the Knights of Columbus.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

12 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

SAINT PETER CANISIUS' STORY

FEAST DAY: DECEMBER 21

The energetic life of Peter Canisius should demolish any stereotypes we may have of the life of a saint as dull or routine. Peter lived his 76 years at a pace which must be considered heroic, even in our time of rapid change. A man blessed with many talents, Peter is an excellent example of the scriptural man who develops his talents for the sake of the Lord's work.

Peter was one of the most important figures in the Catholic Reformation in Germany. He played such a key role that he has often been called the "second apostle of Germany," in that his life parallels the earlier work of Boniface.

Although Peter once accused himself of idleness in his youth, he could not have been idle too long, for at the age of 19 he received a master's degree from the university at Cologne. Soon afterwards he met Peter Faber, the first disciple of Ignatius of Loyola, who influenced Peter so much that he joined the recently formed Society of Jesus.

At this early age Peter had already taken up a practice he continued throughout his life—a process of study, reflection, prayer, and writing. After his ordination in 1546, he became widely known for his editions of the writings of St. Cyril of Alexandria and St. Leo the Great. Besides this reflective literary bent, Peter had a zeal for the apostolate. He could often be found visiting the sick or imprisoned, even when his assigned duties in other areas were more than enough to keep most people fully occupied.

In 1547, Peter attended several sessions of the Council of Trent, whose decrees he was later assigned to implement. After a brief teaching assignment at the Jesuit college at Messina, Peter was entrusted with the mission to Germany—from that point on his life's work. He taught in several universities and was instrumental in establishing many colleges and seminaries. He wrote a catechism that explained the Catholic faith in a way that common people could understand—a great need of that age.

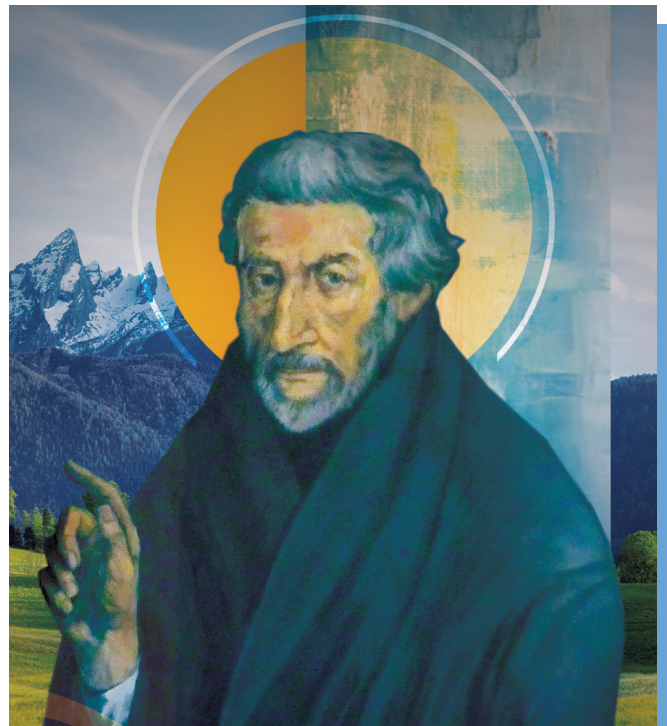

Renowned as a popular preacher, Peter packed churches with those eager to hear his eloquent proclamation of the gospel. He had great diplomatic ability, often serving as a reconciler between disputing factions. In his letters—filling eight volumes—one finds words of wisdom and counsel to people in all walks of life. At times he wrote unprecedented letters of criticism to leaders of the Church—yet always in the context of a loving, sympathetic concern. At 70, Peter suffered a paralytic seizure, but he continued to preach and write with the aid of a secretary, until his death in his hometown of Nijmegen, Netherlands, on December 21, 1597.

Reflection:

Peter's untiring efforts are an apt example for those involved in the renewal of the Church or the growth of moral consciousness in business or government. He is regarded as one of the creators of the Catholic press, and can easily be a model for the Christian author or journalist. Teachers can see in his life a passion for the transmission of truth. Whether we have much to give, as Peter Canisius did, or whether we have only a little to give, as did the poor widow in the Gospel of Luke (see Luke 21:1-4), the important thing is to give our all. It is in this way that Peter is so exemplary for Christians in an age of rapid change when we are called to be in the world but not of the world.

Saint Peter Canisius is a Patron Saint of:
