WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

04 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

MARCH 5, 2023

EX 17:3-7 | PS 95:1-2, 6-9 | ROM 5:1-2, 5-8 | JN 4:5-42

In the gospel from today we hear the classic story about the woman that Jesus meets at the well. This is a woman who is an outcast from society. She is consigned to draw her water in the middle of the day because she cannot go in the cool morning hours when the other women of the town go. The other women have found her unfit, and are ashamed to be seen with her because of the five husbands she has been with and the man she now lives with who is not her husband. In ancient Israel, it was only the man who could initiate a divorce and separate from his wife and even then only if there were very specific reasons such as her being immoral, unlovable or incapable of fulfilling her wifely duties. This woman was divorced on 5 occasions and living in an immoral relationship with a man who was not her husband. All of this seems to point towards a pattern of immoral behavior in her life which caused her to be rejected not just by 5 husbands but by the wider community as well. She is a woman who was living in shame, rejected and abandoned because of her sin.

Jesus however does not reject her. He in fact does the unthinkable. He asks for a drink of water from her. For a righteous and upstanding Jew to have done this at that time would have been scandalous. As the gospel itself says, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans" A Jew would have never drunk from the same vessel as a Samaritan, and a good Jewish man would have never spoken to a woman by himself most especially a Samaritan woman who is so very clearly in such an indecent life, as evidenced by her coming to the well at noon. It was unthinkable what Jesus did. And yet he did it all. Violating all of the norms and practices which were supposed protect him from the uncleanness of her life.

In these actions of Jesus we see that he drew close to the woman precisely in the deepest areas of sin and shame in her life. Jesus went into the midst of her sin and her shame and asked for a drink of water. Jesus, the Son of God, became needy in the midst of her sinful, broken, and messy life. Jesus did not reject her because of her sin and shame. Her sin and her shame became her meeting place with the love of Jesus, a love that called her out of her darkness, out of a life of brokenness and sin into a new life.

This story shows us a path forward in our own lives. Where we sin and are ashamed Jesus wants to draw close. He wants to ask us for a drink of water from the bitter well of our lives and in exchange to offer us, like he offered the Samaritan woman, living water, water that will spring up to eternal life. So, during this lent will we let Jesus draw close to us as he did to the Samaritan woman? Will we let him take away our sin, our shame, our despair, anger and sadness? For this is what he longs to do. He longs to meet us in the deepest and darkest areas of our lives and to replace the darkness with the life giving water of his own presence. Jesus is our well, springing up to eternal life. It is his presence in our lives that draws us out of a life of sin and death and gives us the possibility of new life. Let us then choose a new life with Jesus, giving him all that is dead and lifeless inside us and let him replace it with his own life giving Spirit.

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

MORNING OFFERING

O Jesus,
through the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
I offer You my prayers, works,
joys and sufferings
of this day for all the intentions
of Your Sacred Heart,
in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass
throughout the world,
in reparation for my sins,
for the intentions of all my relatives and friends,
and in particular
for the intentions of the Holy Father.
Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE PAVILION PROJECT

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

SAINT PATRICK'S STORY

FEAST DAY: MARCH 17

Legends about Patrick abound; but truth is best served by our seeing two solid qualities in him: He was humble and he was courageous. The determination to accept suffering and success with equal indifference guided the life of God's instrument for winning most of Ireland for Christ.

Details of his life are uncertain. Current research places his dates of birth and death a little later than earlier accounts. Patrick may have been born in Dunbarton, Scotland, Cumberland, England, or in northern Wales. He called himself both a Roman and a Briton. At 16, he and a large number of his father's slaves and vassals were captured by Irish raiders and sold as slaves in Ireland. Forced to work as a shepherd, he suffered greatly from hunger and cold.

After six years Patrick escaped, probably to France, and later returned to Britain at the age of 22. His captivity had meant spiritual conversion. He may have studied at Lerins, off the French coast; he spent years at Auxerre, France, and was consecrated bishop at the age of 43. His great desire was to proclaim the good news to the Irish.

In a dream vision it seemed "all the children of Ireland from their mothers' wombs were stretching out their hands" to him. He understood the vision to be a call to do mission work in pagan Ireland. Despite opposition from those who felt his education had been defective, he was sent to carry out the task. He went to the west and north—where the faith had never been preached—obtained the protection of local kings, and made numerous converts.

Because of the island's pagan background, Patrick was emphatic in encouraging widows to remain chaste and young women to consecrate their virginity to Christ. He ordained many priests, divided the country into dioceses, held Church councils, founded several monasteries and continually urged his people to greater holiness in Christ.

He suffered much opposition from pagan druids and was criticized in both England and Ireland for the way he conducted his mission. In a relatively short time, the island had experienced deeply the Christian spirit, and was prepared to send out missionaries whose efforts were greatly responsible for Christianizing Europe. Patrick was a man of action, with little inclination toward learning. He had a rock-like belief in his vocation, in the cause he had espoused. One of the few certainly authentic writings is his Confessio, above all an act of homage to God for having called Patrick, unworthy sinner, to the apostolate.

There is hope rather than irony in the fact that his burial place is said to be in County Down in Northern Ireland, long the scene of strife and violence.

Reflection:

What distinguishes Patrick is the durability of his efforts. When one considers the state of Ireland when he began his mission work, the vast extent of his labors, and how the seeds he planted continued to grow and flourish, one can only admire the kind of man Patrick must have been. The holiness of a person is known only by the fruits of his or her work.

Father Timothy Canaan has been a priest of the Diocese of Ogdensburg in New York since May 22, 1993. In addition to being a pastor and a parish priest Father Timothy has served the Diocese of Ogdensburg as its Vocation Director, Director of Admissions of Wadhams Hall Seminary-College and Diocesan Director of Campus Ministry. Shortly after Father Timothy's ordination to the priesthood he began preaching retreats in the Diocese of Ogdensburg. He has preached numerous Parish Missions and has been the retreat director for Commissioned Lay Ministers, and Vocation Candidates, Father Timothy's gift of preaching enables him to preach the gospel message through the use of real life stories and everyday situations. In January of 2019 Father Timothy had to retire from active ministry due to severe cardiac issues. His retirement brought him to South Florida where he now resides and assists in celebrating Mass here at Emmanuel.
