WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

ACTS 2:14A, 36-41 | PS 23: 1-3A, 3B4, 5, 6 | 1 PT 2:20B-25 | JN 10:1-10

Waiting. It is one of the most uncomfortable and frustrating parts of our lives. Whether we are in line at the grocery store, or are stuck in traffic waiting is a part of our everyday lives. It is something which, in our fast paced world, begins to feel like a disruption to our lives. Whether it is in the small or big things waiting is baked into every facet of our lives. Waiting follows us everywhere we go. We can't get away from it.

For some of us this can make us feel like we are in one long DMV line. Our lives become burdensome. Any sense of purpose can be sucked out and we can feel directionless. We simply jump from event to event never tending to the space between. It can make us feel as though we are waiting for our lives to actually begin. We feel unfulfilled. For some it leads to a sense of depression or listlessness. While for others it pushes them to be as busy as possible. It doesn't matter whether we find ourselves at one end of the spectrum or the other or somewhere between waiting will always be part of our lives.

Much of the time we can see these periods of waiting as middle or between periods. They are the periods that make up the time between the more meaningful events of our lives. But are these moments simply the betweens or are they something more? If they are just empty moments that eat up our time, they can be swapped out for things that are more productive or efficient. On the surface, we get a great sense of satisfaction from trying to cram every last moment full. Rather than fixing the problem though it only covers over it. This approach to life shows itself as being unsustainable. All you need to do is look at the number of people who are burned out and exhausted and very quickly you will see that trying to fill up our time is not the answer. No matter how much you try and fill in the moments of your life, that sense of waiting will always be there. Since this waiting, these moments of betweenness will always be in our lives what should we do about them? Rather than try to fill them up, rush past them or be overwhelmed by them we should see them as an invitation. This waiting and these moments of betweenness are an invitation from Jesus to friendship with him. These are the moments where we can be reminded of why we do what we do and of who we belong to as Christians. It is these moments between our work, our family life and the multitude of other things that clamor for our attention that we meet the Lord who calls us to himself. Without these moments when we return to the wellspring of life-giving water which is Jesus' abiding presence our lives become just a series of busy events which soon lose their flavor and become dull and lifeless. We must always go back to Jesus. It is in the waiting that we find Jesus with us.

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

MORNING OFFERING

O Jesus,
through the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
I offer You my prayers, works,
joys and sufferings
of this day for all the intentions
of Your Sacred Heart,
in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass
throughout the world,
in reparation for my sins,
for the intentions of all my relatives and friends,
and in particular
for the intentions of the Holy Father.
Amen.

ST. MICHAEL PRAYER

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen."

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

CONFIRMATION CLASS 2023

08 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

Congratulations to all our students who were confirmed on Sunday April 23rd . We are grateful to all who made our Confirmation ceremony a wonderful moment. A heartfelt thank you to the Most Reverend Bishop Gerald Barbarito, Father Zamora, Father Theo, Father Brian King, our Servers: Seminarian Joseph Steger, Thomas Dubicki and Altar Boy Austin Bambace. Our Knights of Columbus Hospitality Chuck Dolce, Tom Rowlett, Bob Albertson, Bob Budd & John Gibbons who helped organize the confirmands, sponsors, families and friends. Our musicians Linda Coz & Reejai Bladonado who filled our church with beautiful music and Mr. Alan Millare for FB livestreaming to capture the moment for future enjoyment.

A special thank you to Jerome Plummer who prepared the students for this Sacrament of Confirmation. It's not what he gave them in class each Sunday, it's what he asked of each of the students in order for them to have a meaningful experience in preparing for Confirmation... He encouraged the kids to think on their own, and gave them the tools to grow their faith and be the best version of themselves . This confirmation was special as well for Jerome as his youngest son Paul received his Confirmation!

I also want to recognize and deeply thank Julie Mondello; a very special teacher for a group of students in this particular Confirmation class. These students have journeyed through our CCD program every year since their First Communion and have fostered a family like friendship. Julie has been their teacher each year as they moved up in grades. She created a special learning experience by making it fun and faith filled each Sunday where the kids would stay longer than class time. She has also inspired these kids to participate in mass and church events which created good role models for our younger students. This was evident and proudly expressed by the lectors during the Confirmation mass; Josie Mondello and Nicholas Capizola did a wonderful job in proclaiming the readings as did Isabella Sherman who read the prayers of the faithful. Julie and I have had the true joy of watching these students and our own children (Josefina Mondello & Nicholas Capizola) grow in our classroom and in our church and now receive their Confirmation together.

To all the students, God has a plan for each of you. He wants you to give thanks in all circumstances. As you discern your way through life; forge a grateful mind and a grateful heart. "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" 1 Thessalonians 5:18. This is the path to unlocking your super power of living a joyful and happy life and will be the key to being successful in your faith and life. May you keep your promise to serve God faithfully. May God's love be in your hearts to strengthen you along life's way.

God Bless, Jean Krokus

SAINT OF THE WEEK

12 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

SAINT HILARY OF ARLES' STORY

FEAST DAY: MAY 5TH

It's been said that youth is wasted on the young. In some ways, that was true for today's saint. Born in France in the early fifth century, Hilary came from an aristocratic family. In the course of his education he encountered his relative, Honoratus, who encouraged the young man to join him in the monastic life. Hilary did so. He continued to follow in the footsteps of Honoratus as bishop. Hilary was only 29 when he was chosen bishop of Arles.

The new, youthful bishop undertook the role with confidence. He did manual labor to earn money for the poor. He sold sacred vessels to ransom captives. He became a magnificent orator. He traveled everywhere on foot, always wearing simple clothing.

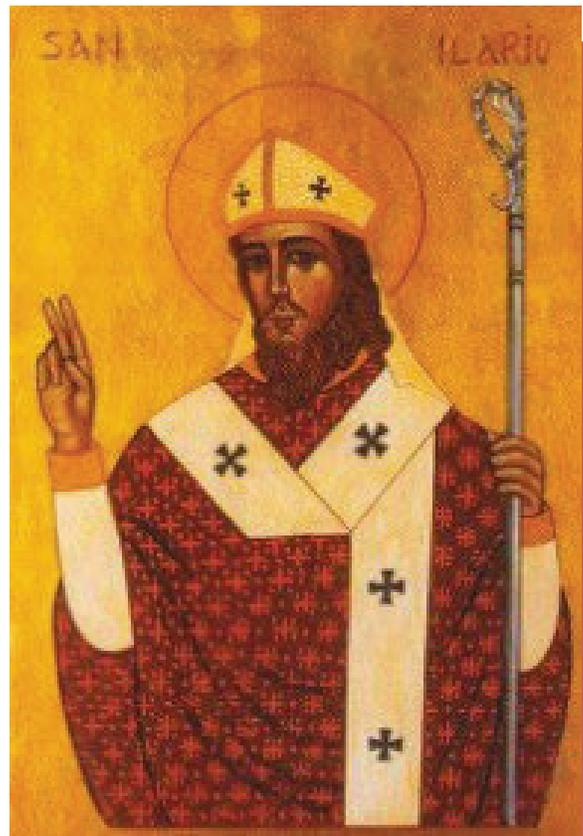

That was the bright side. Hilary encountered difficulty in his relationships with other bishops over whom he had some jurisdiction. He unilaterally deposed one bishop. He selected another bishop to replace one who was very ill—but, to complicate matters, did not die! Pope Saint Leo the Great kept Hilary a bishop but stripped him of some of his powers.

Hilary died at 49. He was a man of talent and piety who in due time, had learned how to be a bishop.

Reflection

Saint Hilary teaches us to respect authority even if found in a young person. Age is not the issue: prudence and wisdom are.
