Value of Relationships

One time I visited and talked to a very rich old man dying of cancer. According to him, during his younger years, he worked very hard to be able to give his family “the best things that money can buy.” But because he worked too much for material wealth, he had not been able to spend enough time with them. He humbly admitted that he had neglected his relationship with them. And this is something he regretted so much. I felt so sad seeing a dying person with so much regret... regret that he had put aside the most important thing in life for less important things... regret that he had taken for granted what really matters most to him now: his family. I felt so sad seeing a dying person in a big beautiful mansion, with nobody on his side, except two housemaids. I’m sure he badly wanted his family to be with him at that moment. He needed his children to spend time with him in his last days. But he himself knew that he did not have any right to ask that from them because when they were growing up he was not with them. He did not spend time with them.

We celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast actually calls us to examine how we value our relationships. Practically every year I give this explanation about the Trinity... “The Trinity is about three persons - the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit bound in a relationship of love. And Trinity is about me, because I am the reflection of that relationship... I am called to be a loving person. And it is about us, because we are called to be a trinity... called to be a community... called to live in loving relationships. We are called to reflect God’s loving relationship: Father, Son & Spirit.”

I believe in my heart that when we are already dying what will be very important to us, what we will need most, is that we are surrounded by persons we love and who love us. In other words, what will be very important to us will be our relationships with our family and friends. We were made to love persons. We were created to be in loving relationships.

We must be living mirrors of the love and faithfulness of God the Father. Especially in devotion to our family, our community and our country. We must be real portraits of the sacrifice and self-giving of God the Son. Especially in our service of the poor, the hungry the neglected the imprisoned, and the oppressed. We must be authentic images of the abiding and guiding presence of God the Holy Spirit, especially in our ministry with the lonely, the lost and the wayward.

God is love itself...and we are called to be a reflection of that love. We are called to a reflection of the loving relationship of the Father, son and Holy Spirit.

Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church

On February 11th, 2018 the congregation from Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments inscribed a new obligatory memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, into the general Roman calendar. This memorial is celebrated every year on the Monday after Pentecost.

Prayer

O God, Father of mercies. Whose only begotten son, as he hung upon the cross, chose the blessed Virgin Mary his Mother to be our Mother also, grant we pray, that with her loving help your church may be more fruitful day by day and exulting in the holiness of her children, through our Lord Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

From the Pastors Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Welcome back!

As we reopen our Church for the sacraments especially the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist, I want to express my heart felt gratitude for all your financial support to our Parish family. Since March 20th we closed our church for all liturgical activities due to the corona virus. I was deeply worried at that time because I know that we will loose thousands of dollars for our operation. Thanks be to God you made a miracle. Your contributions/offerings since we closed until may 25th reached the amount of $107,940.61. Your generosity surpassed even at this most difficult time in our lives. Once again, thank you and may God Bless you and your families.

Special Thank You

To all the members of the ministry of hospitality headed by Bob Bonney and Chuck Dolce and the members of the Knights of Columbus. Through the effort of our Grand Knight Bob Albertson for welcoming and directing our parishioners where to sit and sanitizing our Church after every Mass

Thank You!

Father's Day

What a perfect way to demonstrate our love and respect for our Father, Grandfather or a man who loved you as a Father, or your spiritual father (your priest). Join us for our Novena of Masses for our fathers living and deceased. The novena will start on Sunday June 21st.
