On this thirteenth Sunday, the church exhorts us to welcome Christ in others. This is especially, through the messengers of God among us. She equally encourages us to be sensitive to the needs of one another in order to make a positive difference in their lives.

It is important to ask ourselves these important questions: do we still value the presence of others? Are we sensitive to their needs? Is our presence a source of blessing to the people we meet? Does it really make any difference, or is it an added burden to their life? What good do I bring to the life of others?

In the first reading the prophet Elisha is shown great hospitality by the wealthy women from Shunem who had no child and whose husband was old. By the end of the reading, Elisha has promised her son. The second reading tells us that if we have died with Christ we will also share his glory. And in the Gospel, Jesus tells us that the good we do especially for those who need will surely be rewarded.

Nothing surpasses the generosity of God. He is never miserly. His abundance and his goodness flows to all of his creation, most especially to us his children, no matter how weak and sinful we are. His sun shines and his rain on both the good and the bad. At the same time, it is also true that those who give to him generously, who commit their whole lives to serving him, receive a recompense that is beyond anything they can imagine, in this life and in next. "give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over will be poured into your lap." (Lk. 6:38) For, "God loves a generous giver." (2 Cor. 9:7)

Pray: Lord, let me give of myself completely, to you, to the people I love and serve. Let me not count the cost, for loving you and your people is reward in itself.

Act: Go and check your closets and drawers and go over your old clothes and belongings. Take what you no longer use and no longer need and donate it to the poor. And say a prayer of thanks to the lord for giving you the gift of generosity.

Diocese of Palm Beach Phased Reopening of Churches and Safety Protocols:

- Wear facemasks during the Sacrament of Reconciliation and in your parish (with the exception of reception of Holy Communion).
- Social distancing will be observed, with spacing of 6 feet and use of every other pew (except for families and couples).
- Hand sanitizers and safety wipes should be used.
- There will be no reception of the Precious Blood or sign of peace, greeting of peace or holding of hands during the Our Father.

Diocese of Palm Beach Phased Reopening of Churches

Diocese of Palm Beach Catholics are dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass until further notice. This is meant to ensure the well-being and safety of all, not only the elderly and those who are at risk for illness, but anyone of any age who is making a prudent decision about their own well-being as well as that of others. Faithful are invited to continue to enjoy the weekly Televised Catholic Mass or attend their parish during the hours they are open.

Statement of Equality

We have undertaken the opening of our churches in the Diocese of Palm Beach on the foundation of prayer, prudence, and patience to ensure the safety of all and to eliminate the pandemic of the coronavirus. Tragically, we also are in the midst of other destructive viruses which also requires prayer, prudence, and patience for their elimination. They are the virus of racism which continues to infect our nation and the virus of violence which has erupted in response to it. We must do all we can to eliminate the devastating destruction which these viruses cause to our great nation.

One of the blessings of our country is the right to express our opinion in a legitimate manner and the right to protest injustice and inequality in a legal manner. However, the employment of violence in such expression is of the same nature as the injustice and inequality of racism that is rightly being protested. When we encounter racism and violence, we are in the face of the most infectious forces of evil.

As Pope Francis recently stated, "We cannot tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form and yet claim to defend the sacredness of every life. ... At the same time, we have to recognize that 'the violence of recent nights is self-destructive and self-defeating. Nothing is gained by violence and so much is lost'."

We pray in a very special way for George Floyd, his family and for all those afflicted by racism and violence. We join with and pray for all those seeking peace and healing within our nation and for those who offer their lives for the protection of others.

Hello to all of you at Emmanuel Catholic Church, my name is Joseph Steger and I am a seminarian studying just up the road at St. Vincent de Paul seminary. I feel so blessed to be able to be at Emmanuel this summer and I look forward to getting to know many of you during my time here. It is in this spirit of eagerness of getting to know many of you, that I wish to share a little bit about myself so you can all get to know me in return.

I was born and raised in Plymouth Wisconsin, a small town in the east central part of the state, by my parents Gregory and Maryellen. I have three siblings Michael, Jameson and Maria (who currently works for this parish as the receptionist). My father is the inheritor of a family business in heating and air conditioning and my mother was a stay at home mom, homeschooling us children all the way through high school. Growing up in a small town was a blessing in so many ways. From a young age I knew so many of the people in our local community, people who had known my parents, grandparents and great grandparents. This sense of being grounded in a community, through my family going back generations as well as knowing the people around me, gave me sense of security. It was the kind of security which I never thought I wanted to leave. That is until I was about 9 years old.

When I was 9, I learned about a woman by the name of Mother Teresa. I learned about how she cared for the poor and gave her whole life away to serve the poor, the broken and the forgotten of the world. As a 9-year-old something within me stirred and I knew that I wanted to be like her. I knew that I wanted to know God like she did, to see his face in the poorest of the poor. This was the dream I had for quite a while, until I was about 14. At this point in my life, the desire to get married and to have a family of my own began to come up and all the thoughts of wanting to live like Mother Teresa were set aside. However, after I graduated high school and was working full time, with plans of owning my own farm, the Lord called me back to the memory of my childhood and my desire to live like Mother Teresa. In bringing back all these memories and desires the Lord called began to call me out of that security which I had known ever since I was young and into the unknown.

It was in this desire to be like Mother Teresa that the Lord called me into the seminary. I was a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee for 4 years and during that time the desire to be a priest who served the poor and lived as a missionary continued to grow. It was in my final year of seminary when I began to understand that the Lord was calling me to something other than diocesan priesthood. With my spiritual director I discerned to leave the seminary for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee and do a year of formation and missionary work with Jesus Youth. During that year I discerned to become a missionary priest for Jesus Youth. In the fall of 2019, I entered St. Vincent de Paul Seminary for Jesus Youth. This last May I finished my first of 5 years at St. Vincent de Paul. With God's grace and the prayers of many people I hope to be ordained a priest in 4 years for Jesus Youth to serve the Lord and his Church.

God bless you all,
Joseph Steger

July 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Natural Family Planning Awareness week is the annual national educational campaign sponsored by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) to promote Natural Family Planning (NFP). This year, NFP Awareness week be celebrated from July 19 through July 25 under the theme: Live the truth and beauty of God's plan for married love! The campaign offers us a wonderful opportunity to share the good news about God's perfect design for marriage and responsible parenting.

In sacramental marriage we are called to live with Christ-like love; to freely give of ourselves as a gift to our beloved. Married love is fundamentally a call to fruitfulness and, in response to this call, the Church proposes Natural Family Planning. Today's NFP provides a modern, scientific method available to couples for planning their families by enabling them to participate in God's creative action without breaking the inseparable link between the unitive and procreative meanings of the conjugal (marital) act. As NFP becomes a way of life, husbands and wives cooperate with each other and with God in responsibly planning their family and avoid the devastating spiritual and physical harm caused by artificial contraceptive methods.

During Natural Family Planning Awareness week, we also celebrate the 52nd anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae. Issued in 1968 by Pope Paul VI, this encyclical prophetically articulates the grave consequences of the use of artificial and illicit means of birth control, including a general lowering of morality, increased infidelity, and devaluing of women (HV, no. 17). Unfortunately, today's headlines confirm the devastating accuracy of his predictions and demonstrate the destructive consequences for our families. In contrast, couples who practice NFP enjoy greater marital stability and suffer divorce at only a fraction of the rate of divorce among first time marriages overall.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank those married couples who live out their marriage commitment to free, total, faithful and fruitful love. I encourage all married couples and those preparing for marriage to reflect on their current or future marriages and how they can authentically and responsibly fulfill their commitment to fruitful love. If you have not yet considered NFP or have questions, I invite you to investigate and discover the richness of NFP. Please visit our website at www.diocesepb.org/naturalfamilyplanning for resources and additional information or call 561-775-9539.

With every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
