Of Wheat & Weeds

God asserts that His love and His goodness will always prevail over the threats of evil and destruction. A righteous disciple knows how to discern God's ways amid overwhelming lures in the world.

Movies and television love to highlight the realities of hell and evil in people and societies. We agree that such realities are around us people are killed, children are abandoned, countries are at war, and many more circumstances making us think we are already in hell. In fact, it already shocks us when we hear of a taxi driver handing in lots of money left by a passenger or a policeman being honest. Still, there are more acts of good deed that do not become headlines. There is more heaven and goodness in people and this world.

The kingdom of God is compared to a farmer who faces a delicate problem: he wakes up one morning and finds wheat and darnel, a poisonous weed, growing side-by-side in his field. The bigger problem is that the darnel can only be distinguished from the wheat when it has already grown considerably. His servants advise the owner of the field to weed out the darnel, but the owner insists that the darnel be left alone. He is worried that uprooting the weeds will likewise uproot the wheat. Thus, he orders that both wheat and weed be allowed to grow together side-by-side in his field. Separating them can wait till harvest time. One day a man approached his mother and protested: "Our church is filled with so many hypocrites! I will never go to that church again." "You better get back to that church, son," the mother retorted. "But why should I, mother?" continued the man. "Because," the mother explained, "first, you are already sixty years old and, therefore, you are too old not to go to church. And second, because you are the parish priest of that church!"

The church will always be a community of saints and sinners until Jesus comes again at the end of the world. There will always be righteous and self-righteous people around. There will always be good and bad people in the faith community where we belong. It takes a godlike heart to accept this reality. A godlike heart is a loving heart, more than a patient heart, for it is not patience that moves God to give endless chances to the sinner to change his ways. It is the fatherly love of God that makes Him hope that the sinner would turn out to be a saint after all. It is His love that hopes even for the hopeless man. May we have the same love and hope the same hope. May we be godly like God. If there is somebody who grows like a darnel in your life, love him.

If there is someone who represents the weed in the kingdom of God, be like God to him... patient, forbearing and, most of all, loving. After all, you know what it is to be a weed, too, don't you?

Leave the task of separating the wheat and weed to God. Take up the task of growing in the midst of wheat and weeds. -

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is a truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Saint Mary Magdalene's Story

Except for the mother of Jesus, few women are more honored in the Bible than Mary Magdalene. Yet she could well be the patron of the slandered, since there has been a persistent legend in the Church that she is the unnamed sinful woman who anointed the feet of Jesus in Luke 7:36-50.

Most Scripture scholars today point out that there is no scriptural basis for confusing the two women. Mary Magdalene, that is, "of Magdala," was the one from whom Christ cast out "seven demons" (Luke 8:2)—an indication at the worst, of extreme demonic possession or possibly, severe illness.

Writing in the New Catholic Commentary, Father Wilfrid J. Harrington, O.P., says that "seven demons" "does not mean that Mary had lived an immoral life—a conclusion reached only by means of a mistaken identification with the anonymous woman of Luke 7:36." In the Jerome Biblical Commentary, Father Edward Mally, SJ, agrees that she "is not...the same as the sinner of Luke 7:37, despite the later Western romantic tradition about her." Mary Magdalene was one of the many "who were assisting them [Jesus and the Twelve] out of their means." She was one of those who stood by the cross of Jesus with his mother. And, of all the "official" witnesses who might have been chosen for the first awareness of the Resurrection, she was the one to whom that privilege was given. She is known as the "Apostle to the Apostles."

Reflection

Mary Magdalene has been a victim of mistaken identity for almost 20 centuries. Yet she would no doubt insist that it makes no difference. We are all sinners in need of the saving power of God, whether our sins have been lurid or not. More importantly, we are all "unofficial" witnesses of the Resurrection.

“Holy Child of Prague II” - From Fred Martz

The Holy Child of Prague II that rises above the steps to the Alter at Emmanuel Catholic Church is of historical significances.

It is a 1989 reproduction of the original 1956 Holy Child of Prague that was commissioned for the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception being built in Washington DC.

The 22inch 1956 sculpture is on permanent display in the lower crypt church of the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception.

The Cybis sculpture is undoubtedly one of the most delicately conceived porcelain figure to be found anywhere in the world.

Since the child is traditionally dressed in priceless garments of silk, brocade, embroidery, and lace, many times consuming processes and exhaustive experiments were involved in the sculpture creation.

The delicate transparency of silk was achieved by shaving the porcelain to rose petal thinness.

The extensive use of both 18k and 24k gold is a testament to the genius of the Cybis artist since each application of Gold requires another firing in the kiln and could easily "burn out" and require the need to "begin again" the multiple layering of porcelain to achieve the perfection that is Cybis.

Many of these artists were from Poland and other European Capitals of fine art. Finally, the Holy Child is a Blessing on the people of Emmanuel Church and ultimately for the greater Honor and Glory of the Almighty God.

P.S several phrases are attributed to Cybis and New York Times Literature.

July 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Natural Family Planning Awareness week is the annual national educational campaign sponsored by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) to promote Natural Family Planning (NFP). This year, NFP Awareness week be celebrated from July 19 through July 25 under the theme: Live the truth and beauty of God's plan for married love! The campaign offers us a wonderful opportunity to share the good news about God's perfect design for marriage and responsible parenting.

In sacramental marriage we are called to live with Christ-like love; to freely give of ourselves as a gift to our beloved. Married love is fundamentally a call to fruitfulness and, in response to this call, the Church proposes Natural Family Planning. Today's NFP provides a modern, scientific method available to couples for planning their families by enabling them to participate in God's creative action without breaking the inseparable link between the unitive and procreative meanings of the conjugal (marital) act. As NFP becomes a way of life, husbands and wives cooperate with each other and with God in responsibly planning their family and avoid the devastating spiritual and physical harm caused by artificial contraceptive methods.

During Natural Family Planning Awareness week, we also celebrate the 52nd anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae. Issued in 1968 by Pope Paul VI, this encyclical prophetically articulates the grave consequences of the use of artificial and illicit means of birth control, including a general lowering of morality, increased infidelity, and devaluing of women (HV, no. 17). Unfortunately, today's headlines confirm the devastating accuracy of his predictions and demonstrate the destructive consequences for our families. In contrast, couples who practice NFP enjoy greater marital stability and suffer divorce at only a fraction of the rate of divorce among first time marriages overall.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank those married couples who live out their marriage commitment to free, total, faithful and fruitful love. I encourage all married couples and those preparing for marriage to reflect on their current or future marriages and how they can authentically and responsibly fulfill their commitment to fruitful love. If you have not yet considered NFP or have questions, I invite you to investigate and discover the richness of NFP. Please visit our website at www.diocesepb.org/naturalfamilyplanning for resources and additional information or call 561-775-9539.

With every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach
