I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count,
from every nation, race, people, and tongue.
They stood before the throne and before the Lamb.

Thirty-first Sunday In Ordinary Time (A)

November 1st, 2020

Rv 7: 2-4, 9-14 / Ps 24: 1b-4b, 5-6 / 1 Jn 4: 1-3 / Mt 5: 1-12a

To be blessed is to be like the Lamb of God. The key word for this Sunday is “Blessedness!” who are the “Blessed ones?” They are the ones who have been washed by the blood of the Lamb, those who have remained faithful under trial, those who mirrored the face of the One true blessed Jesus Christ. The palm branch is a great symbol of martyrs witnesses, who, like Christ have offered their lives for truth, justice, charity and peace.

The Catholic Church celebrates a great solemnity on this day as she recognizes the “144,000” the symbolic number ($12 \times 12 \times 100$ or simply “a great multitude”) of the saved from all nations and from all generations. Among these multitude of saints are not only the “canonized” but also the many more anonymous or unknown saints, even from our own families! All who strive to live the Beatitudes set by Christ in the Gospel are on the way to becoming “Blessed!”

St. Paul wrote: It is the will of God for you to become holy. (1 Thes 4:3) You have no right to say no, impossible, not me. As we honor today these canonized and not officially canonized friends of God who with him rejoicing in eternal glory. They invite us to follow them so that November 1st will be in the future your feast day and mine.

The call to holiness or sanctification is truly something for all regardless of gender, state of life, ethnicity or whatever . No one is exempt from the call to sanctity. The saints have simply shown us how it’s done. Holy people who preceded us were parents, grandparents great-grandparents, uncles, aunts and friends, who lived their faith with devotion, who made sacrifices for their families and who passed their values and beliefs onto their children.

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is a truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

St. Michael Prayer

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen."

All Souls Day

The Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed

From the beginning the church honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God. (Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 607)

If he (Judas Maccabeus) were not expecting the fallen to rise again, it would have been useless and foolish to pray for them in death...Thus he made atonement for the dead that they might be freed from sin. (2 Maccabees 12:44-46)

As we commemorate today all the faithful departed, it is not death that we focus on but LIFE. Eternal life. They have gone home where we all hope to follow someday. Heaven is a home.

Jesus instituted the first Mass with his apostles at the last supper. He mandated his apostles and us to continue celebrating the mass in remembrance of him and for our redemption. The eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life." or the center of our Christian life. We are all members of the mystical body of Christ and as members we are praying for each other; living and deceased and the highest form of prayer that we can offer to each other especially to our loved ones who have gone ahead of us in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

So please join us in our Novena of Masses for our deceased loved one's which begins on Monday, November 2nd the commemoration of all the faithfully departed (All Souls Day) All souls novena envelopes are located at the exit doors of the church.

National Vocation Awareness week

Sunday November 1st begins Vocation Awareness week. Did you know that in our country, compared to 60 years ago there are 20,000 fewer priests and 129,000 fewer religious sisters? At the same time the catholic church population has grown steadily. During vocation awareness week, please pray that young people in today's society will hear and respond to God's call. And do your part to encourage them to consider the priesthood and religious life.

One vocation leads to another. "Let us not forget that Christian marriage is a vocation to holiness in the full sense of the word, and that the example of holy parents is the first condition favorable for the flowering of priestly and religious vocations." - Pope Benedict XVI

Your Unique Mission. Why does it matter that people discover their God-given vocation? Because the church relies on the unique contribution of every soul. As St. John Henry Newman famously reflected: "God has created me to do some special service; God has committed some work to me which has not been committed to another. I have a mission."

BEATIFICATION OF FATHER MICHAEL J. MCGIVNEY

From October 29 to 31, Father Michael J. McGivney will be beatified in New Haven, CT. EWTN will be streaming the ceremonies, including live Masses.

Father McGivney was a parish priest in the late 1800s. Witnessing the discrimination and prejudice against Catholics during this time, Father McGivney reacted by forming Catholic men into a group which would promote Catholic value and protecting the family. That group became the Knights of Columbus in 1882. It is the world's largest Catholic organization with over 2 million members in 17 countries. Father McGivney's beatification is the result of a miracle attributed to him. It is also interesting that Father McGivney died as a result of contracting flu during the 1890 pandemic.

The schedule of events on EWTN are as follows:

Thursday, October 29, 9:30 AM: Carl Anderson, the Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, will be discussing the legacy of Father McGivney.

Friday, October 30, 6:30 PM: Join in a prayer vigil for Priests to celebrate the Beatification of Father McGivney, broadcast live from St. Mary's Church in New Haven, CT; Father McGivney's home parish.

Saturday, October 31, 10:00 AM: Attend the Solemn Mass and Beatification of Father McGivney, live from the St. Joseph Cathedral, New Haven, CT. The Mass will be re-broadcast at 8:00 PM.

In addition, there is a new documentary exploring the life, legacy and impact of Father Michael McGivney, apostle of spiritual brotherhood and unity. The 20-minute film will air on the K of C YouTube and Facebook channels October 25 at 8:00 PM.

Saint of the Week

Saint of the Day for November 3

Saint Martin de Porres' Story

"Father unknown" is the cold legal phrase sometimes used on baptismal records. "Half-breed" or "war souvenir" is the cruel name inflicted by those of "pure" blood. Like many others, Martin might have grown to be a bitter man, but he did not. It was said that even as a child he gave his heart and his goods to the poor and despised.

He was the son of a freed woman of Panama, probably black but also possibly of indigenous stock, and a Spanish grandee of Lima, Peru. His parents never married each other. Martin inherited the features and dark complexion of his mother. That irked his father, who finally acknowledged his son after eight years. After the birth of a sister, the father abandoned the family. Martin was reared in poverty, locked into a low level of Lima's society.

When he was 12, his mother apprenticed him to a barber-surgeon. Martin learned how to cut hair and also how to draw blood—a standard medical treatment then—care for wounds, and prepare and administer medicines.

After a few years in this medical apostolate, Martin applied to the Dominicans to be a "lay helper," not feeling himself worthy to be a religious brother. After nine years, the example of his prayer and penance, charity and humility, led the community to request him to make full religious profession. Many of his nights were spent in prayer and penitential practices; his days were filled with nursing the sick and caring for the poor. It was particularly impressive that he treated all people regardless of their color, race, or status. He was instrumental in founding an orphanage, took care of slaves brought from Africa, and managed the daily alms of the priory with practicality, as well as generosity. He became the procurator for both priory and city, whether it was a matter of "blankets, shirts, candles, candy, miracles or prayers!" When his priory was in debt, he said, "I am only a poor mulatto. Sell me. I am the property of the order. Sell me."

Side by side with his daily work in the kitchen, laundry, and infirmary, Martin's life reflected God's extraordinary gifts: ecstasies that lifted him into the air, light filling the room where he prayed, bi-location, miraculous knowledge, instantaneous cures, and a remarkable rapport with animals. His charity extended to beasts of the field and even to the vermin of the kitchen. He would excuse the raids of mice and rats on the grounds that they were underfed; he kept stray cats and dogs at his sister's house.

Martin became a formidable fundraiser, obtaining thousands of dollars for dowries for poor girls so that they could marry or enter a convent.

Many of his fellow religious took Martin as their spiritual director, but he continued to call himself a "poor slave." He was a good friend of another Dominican saint of Peru, Rose of Lima.

Reflection: Racism is a sin almost nobody confesses. Like pollution, it is a "sin of the world" that is everybody's responsibility but apparently nobody's fault. One could hardly imagine a more fitting patron of Christian forgiveness—on the part of those discriminated against—and Christian justice—on the part of reformed racists—than Martin de Porres.

Saint Martin de Porres is the Patron Saint of: African Americans / Barbers / Hairdressers / Race Relations / Radio / Social Justice

Lumen Vitae is a humanitarian organization, rooted in Catholic values, which alleviates the poverty and suffering in some of the most marginalized communities in the world. In Haiti, currency volatility, political corruption and gang violence has left the country, especially the families whom we journey with, in a desperate position where they are not able to have food on the table every day.

This year, we're making it our priority to feed our 500 families in Haiti, in our Help Fight Hunger campaign, from November 1st through October 31st, 2021. To help us reach this goal, we're excited to host our first ever virtual "Race for the Light," a fitness challenge that encourages people to get fit, spread awareness about the sufferings of others and support poor families.

By registering for our race, you'll be able to feed poor families in Haiti who otherwise struggle to find a means to provide for themselves. Every $40 raised is able to feed a family of four for a month. Families who are recipients of this aid become participants in other volunteer projects in their own communities where they are encouraged to become agents of giving. A donation causes a ripple effect of giving which goes around the world!

Prayer for Protection Against Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. Prayer for God's Protection in the face of the Coronavirus Pandemic

Loving and gracious God, as in all times, we turn to You and implore Your protection and healing as we face a new threat to our health and peaceful well-being in the coronavirus pandemic before us. Help us to be united with each other and with all of our brothers and sisters around the world affected by this illness. We pray for all those in the medical field who are assisting patients and in the field of science who are discerning a cure, as well as for all government leaders. Remember those who, through this virus, have passed from this life as well as their families in their loss.

At this time of fragile uncertainty, we also humbly implore You to grant us prudence, hope, courage and patience. Dispel from us fear, panic and distrust which disrupt us in spirit to the detriment of our well-being.

We make our prayer in the name of your beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who always cured those who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. Our Lady, Patroness of our Diocese, Queen of the Apostles and Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us, Amen.
