Christ became obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.

Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

Palm Sunday - Passion of the Lord

March 28th, 2021

Is 50: 4-7 / Ps 22:4-7 / Ps 22: 8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24 / Phil 2: 6-11 / Mk 14: 1-15: 47 r 15: 1-39

We hear today from St. Mark, the earliest and the shortest of our gospels. There are only 16 chapters in the whole gospel. Yet almost one third of his gospel (five chapters) describes what happened in the last week of Jesus' life, from his triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday until his resurrection on Easter Sunday. St. John has even more of his gospel devoted to the passion-resurrection narrative. St. John's gospel devotes almost the entire second half of his gospel to this one week in Jesus' life here on earth.

Here is the reason for pointing this out. Everything Jesus did and said during three years of public ministry was important, but the events of his life from Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday, events we commemorate this week the most important of all. For some people Christmas may seem to be the most important feast in the entire year, with all the celebrations that happen around that time. Certainly the birth of Jesus is worth celebrating with great joy, but we would not have even heard of Jesus if it hadn't been for the events that happened between Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday. If you miss out on what we commemorate this week, you are missing out on the main event on which our faith is built.

Easter Sunday will not have much depth of meaning for us without an awareness of what Jesus said and did this week.

The four gospels the church has preserved and taught have given Christians through the centuries a vision of Jesus that was considered authentic and true from earliest times. They have given Christians something secure to hold on to in the ups and downs of life. Through the gospels we know that God's love can and will overcome all evil and even death itself. That's the good news. Our Lord often doesn't run the world the way we think he should. He doesn't always give us everything we want. But in trying time he will always be with us, if we open our hearts to him. I know what a strength meditation on the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus has always been for me.

I recommend you take your palm home today. Keep it somewhere you'll see it from time to time to remind you Jesus entered Jerusalem knowing fully what was ahead for him. Let it remind you of Jesus' courage, his faithfulness to his mission, his victory over sin and death. Let it remind you of his love for you and for me.

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is a truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Holy Week

Holy Week

“Holy week is ordered to the commemoration of Christ’s passion, beginning with his messianic entrance into Jerusalem” ( Universal norms, 31)

The days of Holy week, from Monday to Thursday inclusive, have precedence over all other celebrations. It is not fitting, except in the danger of death, that baptisms or confirmations be celebrated on these days since they have their natural place in Easter Vigil. On Palm Sunday the church recalls the entrance of Christ the Lord into Jerusalem to accomplish his paschal mystery. Due to restrictions, the Gospel of the Passion is read by the priest or Deacon.

The Sacred Paschal Triduum

What really do the liturgies of the triduum celebrate? Most all of us believe we know the answer. We assume that Thursday commemorates the day Jesus instituted the eucharist; Friday commemorates the day he was executed on the cross; and the vigil commemorates his emergence from the tomb.

They celebrate not what once happened to Jesus but what is now happening among us as a people called to conversion, gathered in faith, and gifted with the Spirit of holiness. They celebrate God's taking possession of our hearts at their deepest core, recreating us as a new human community broken like bread for the world's life - a community rich in compassion, steadfast in hope, and fearless in the search for justice and peace.

Chapter One Man's Capacity For God I. The Desire for God

But this "intimate and vital bond of man to God" (GS 19 # 1) can be forgotten, overlooked, or even explicitly rejected by man.<sup>3</sup> Such attitudes can have different causes: revolt against evil in the world; religious ignorance or indifference; the cares and riches of this world; the scandal of bad example on the part of believers; currents of thought hostile to religion; finally, that attitude of sinful man which makes him hide from God out of fear and flee his call.

"Let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice." Although man can forget God or reject him, He never ceases to call every man to seek him, so as to find life and happiness. But this search for God demands of man every effort of intellect, a sound will, "an upright heart", as well as the witness of others who teach him to seek God.

You are great, O Lord, and greatly to be praised: great is your power and your wisdom is without measure. and man, so small a part of your creation, wants to praise you: this man, though clothed with mortality and bearing the evidence of sin and the proof that you withstand the proud. Despite everything, man, though but a small a part of your creation, wants to praise you. You yourself encourage him to delight in your praise, for you have made us for yourself, and our heart is restless until it rests in you.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Every year on Good Friday, a second collection—called The Pontifical Good Friday Collection—is taken in Catholic Churches throughout the world to support the work of the Franciscans working in the Holy Land. Pope Francis has asked parishes to participate in this collection, which supports Church minister in parishes, funds Catholic schools and offers religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines and, in times of crisis, provide humanitarian aid to refugees.

Last year's Pontifical Good Friday Collection supported numerous parishes and academic institutions, supported a home for children impacted by domestic violence, funded scholarships for high school and university education, offered financial assistance at senior care facilities in Bethlehem and Nazareth, preserved 65 shrines connected with the life of Jesus and the prophets and much more.

It has never been easy to be a Christian in the Holy Land. In these challenging times in the Middle East, Christians are experiencing unique hardships. We have an opportunity to help them through the Pontifical Good Friday Collection. With your help, the Franciscans can continue to be a light of hope to those living in Holy Land.

Thank you for supporting this collection. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace in a troubled land.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
