Thirst Sunday of Easter
April 18th, 2021
Acts 3:13-15, 17-19 / Ps 4: 2,4,7-9 / 1 Jn 2: 1-5a / Lk 24: 35-48

A mother proudly told her pastor: "My teenage son has finally learned one bible verse. It's Luke 24, verse 41 where Jesus asks his disciples (as we just heard in today's reading) 'Do you have anything here to eat?'"

The apostles must have been in great confusion by Easter Sunday night. Jesus' tomb was empty. Peter and John had seen the empty tomb in the morning, but they had seen nothing else. Some women, who were Jesus' followers, had talked with an angel who assured them Jesus had risen. Mary Magdalene herself had seen our Lord. Later in the day Jesus appeared to two other disciples, walked and talked with them, broke bread with them and then disappeared.

Those same disciples had just arrived at where the apostles were staying and were telling their story when Jesus suddenly appeared to all of them. Surprised, shocked, disbelief, St. Luke says "terrified," probably embarrassed, too, realizing they had all abandoned him after his arrest. What a mixed bag of emotions they must have been experiencing. No wonder he greets them by saying to them: "Peace be with you." Jesus dispels their doubts about whether they could believe what they were seeing and assures them they are not seeing a ghost by inviting them to feel him, to know that he is flesh and bone. He even ate a piece of fish, food they themselves had prepared, to prove to them that he was real and that he had really risen. And yet he appeared to be different than before. The wounds of the nails and the spear were still in his hands and feet and side. But when he appeared to Mary Magdalene she didn't recognize him until he spoke her name. The two disciples didn't recognize him until he sat down and broke bread with them. there was no doubt it was Jesus, but he was different.

He not only looked different, but he was different in other ways too. He didn't come knocking on their door in order to get in. He just suddenly stood in their midst. The same thing happened with the others who saw him. When his visit to Mary or the two disciples or the apostles had come to an end, he simply vanished. It was as if he was always with them, and sometimes he allowed them to see him but most of the time they couldn't.

Human beings have invented all kinds of marvelous things. There are great discoveries in medicine that can add years to peoples lives. There are wonderful inventions that can make life much more comfortable and enjoyable. We can walk on the moon and we can explore the atom. We have powerful weapons that can cause untold destruction. But who has ever discovered how to overcome the power of death which every living thing must eventually succumb to? The resurrection of Jesus is the most fantastic event that this world would ever know. Since the days when human beings lived in caves, all our inventions, all our discoveries, all our power added together cannot begin to equal the glory of Christ's resurrection that introduced into our world and our history new and eternal life.

The resurrection celebrated not just Jesus' glory but our own future glory if we will open our minds and hearts to him. Jesus' resurrection is a preview of God's plans for those who are his children in Christ.

Eternal life is not automatic. We are not saved without our participation and our cooperation. What does God want? It's simple. He wants us to give up our sins. He tells us this in all three of today's readings. In the first reading, St. Peter tells us: "repent, therefore, and be converted." St. John tells us in the second reading we have to keep God's commandments. Jesus, when he was talking with the apostles, told them to preach "repentance for the forgiveness of sins." God is not really asking too much of a sacrifice from us because it's our sins that keep us from the peace and happiness and joy God wants us to have. Remember it was sin that created problems for the human race in the beginning. God created Adam and Eve to be happy as was symbolized by the Garden of Eden. It was because of their sin that they lost happiness.

Celebration of the Triduum by the children of our Jesus Youth

Saint Gianna Beretta Molla's Story

In less than 40 years, Gianna Beretta Molla became a pediatric physician, a wife, a mother and a saint!

She was born in Magenta near Milano, the tenth of Alberto and Maria Beretta's 13 children. An active member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society and a leader in the Catholic Action movement, Gianna also enjoyed skiing and mountain climbing. She earned degrees in medicine and surgery from the University of Pavia, eventually specializing in pediatrics. In 1952, Gianna opened a clinic in the small town of Mesero, where she met engineer Pietro Molla.

Shortly before their 1955 marriage, Gianna wrote to Pietro: "Love is the most beautiful sentiment that the Lord has put into the soul of men and women." In the next four years the Mollas had three children: Pierluigi, Mariolina, and Laura. Two pregnancies following ended in miscarriage.

Early in her fourth pregnancy, doctors discovered that Gianna had both a child and a tumor in her uterus. She allowed the surgeons to remove the tumor but not to perform the complete hysterectomy that they recommended, which would have killed the child. Seven months later in April 1962, Gianna Emanuela Molla was born at the hospital in Monza, but post-operative complications resulted in an infection for her mother. The following week Gianna Molla died at home, and was buried in the cemetery of Mesero.

Gianna Emanuela went on to become a physician herself. Gianna Beretta Molla was beatified in 1994 and canonized 10 years later. Her liturgical feast is celebrated on April 28.

Reflection

With great faith and courage, Gianna Molla made the choice that enabled her daughter to be born. We can often wish that we were in different circumstances, but holiness frequently comes from making difficult choices in bad situations.

THE BISHOP

April 17, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

On April 24 and 25, 2021, our diocese will participate in the annual Peter's Pence Collection. The funds raised from this annual collection allow the Holy Father to respond to humanitarian disasters around the world. From assisting the recent earthquake victims in Croatia and Albania, or the refugee crisis in the Mediterranean, to free medical clinics, the Peter's Pence collection enables the Successor of Peter to respond to the needs of God's children.

As the expression itself signifies Peter's Pence, represents an offering, no matter how small, that has great meaning. Indeed, its value is not only practical, but is also highly symbolic. It represents a sign of communion with the Pope. For this reason, Peter's Pence is also the manifestation of a sense of belonging to the Church and of love for her visible head (www.obolodesanpietro.va).

By participating in the Peter's Pence Collection, you enable the Holy Father's charitable outreach to those most in need. Please prayerfully consider how you can best support the collection this year. For more information about the collection, please visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach
