Parish Mission Statement

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As one parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

August 22th, 2021

Jos 24: 1-2a, 15-17, 18b / Ps 34: 2-3, 16-21 / Eph 5: 21-32 / Jn 6: 60-69

Today's gospel describes what must have been a very sad day for Jesus. John tells us most of Jesus' followers walked away from him. The day before, they were ready to make him a king; for he had fed them (a great crowd) miraculously with five loaves and two fish. When he told them he was going to give them his flesh to eat and his blood to drink, they thought he was crazy. As Jesus saw them leaving, he asked his apostles if they wanted to leave too. What Jesus had been saying was so serious and so important that he was willing to let everyone walk away from him if they chose.

There was no way to compromise on what he said, no way to water it down. The real bread he came to offer them was himself, he told them, and it was food that would give them eternal life. When they questioned this, he only said it more empathetically and more clearly. Their response was: "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" What was hard was their own minds. They wouldn't open their minds to something they couldn't understand. In all of this we get an ideal picture of what we call "faith". Faith is accepting what we cannot understand, what we cannot prove, what we cannot figure out. We just accept something as true because we trust Jesus who tells us it is so.

Notice, Jesus didn't call the people back who were walking away from him. He didn't say, "Wait people, I'm just talking figuratively. I'm just talking symbolically. I don't mean you really have to eat my flesh and drink my blood! You misunderstand me." He knew there was no misunderstanding; they understood him perfectly and he let them go.

If you want proof from the Bible for the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, you'll find lots of proof, but I think this is the clearest proof you'll find. We might hear the words of Jesus at the Last Supper: "This is my body" and quibble over the definition of "is", but there can be little doubt that Jesus is telling us in this event that the Eucharist is really his body and blood. Those who cannot understand how it can be try to tell us the Eucharist is only a reminder of Jesus' death for us, or that it is only a symbol, or somehow Jesus comes to us along with the bread and wine but it's not really changed. They are in effect saying Jesus didn't really mean what he said.

We who believe in the Eucharist as the body and blood of Christ do not understand how it could be any better than anyone else. And theologians and philosophers have given it their best effort but we still don't know "how" it can be. So it still comes down to faith.

Here we can ask ourselves a question: Why was it that Peter and some of the disciples stayed with Jesus, while others left him? The answer is simple: Peter and his companions stayed because they had more faith in Jesus. Why was this so? They had more faith because they listened closely to what Jesus said and let it sink into their hearts. The same is true when they saw what Jesus did: they observed everything closely and decided that, indeed, he must be the Messiah, the Son of God.

The Gospel points to the importance of faith as well as the need to persevere in the face of difficulties. If we hold on when we encounter a problem or stumbling block, we will overcome. How can we do this? The important thing is to try to see that what happens in our daily life is related very closely to God. And, indeed, what is not related to God! This the way we must see life. It is just as Jesus said, "Every hair on your head has been counted" (Lk. 12:7).

May we continuously try to deepen our faith in God. And may we say, like Peter, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life."

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all our hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, and the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

Altar Servers Needed

We need young people of both genders to join our Altar Servers Ministry. If you are interested call the Parish Office or talk to Fr. Theo. Parents and Guardians, please encourage your kids to become altar servers.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Each year at the Easter Vigil and on Pentecost we celebrate the sacraments with those who have journeyed with the RCIA process. It is always a blessing for our parish and for each of us individually to experience the faith and commitment of our catechumens and candidates. Perhaps you or someone you know would like to complete the Sacraments of Initiation (Communion and/or Confirmation), is of another Christian religion and would like to become a Catholic or is interested in becoming a Catholic through receiving the Sacrament of Baptism.

Contact Deacon Tony in the parish office

Last Will & Testament

As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Emmanuel Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic Formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Emmanuel Catholic Church and there are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Emmanuel Catholic Church to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Emmanuel Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-496-2480. Thank you so much for your generosity!

Religious Education

Registration for our 2021-2022 Religious Education program is now open! Stop by the Parish Office for a form or check our website: emmanuelcatholic.church to fill out the registration online, there will also be a copy of the registration at the end of the bulletin.

If you have any questions, you can contact Jean Krokus at religiouseducation@emmanuelcatholic.church

From your Pastor's Desk

Dear parishioners,

As one Parish Family of Emmanuel, we join in prayer and support for our sisters and brothers in Haiti who are currently suffering overwhelming loss through natural disasters.

HOLY WATER DISPENSERS COMING SOON

There will be six Holy Water dispensers coming very soon to be installed at every door inside the church. Thank you to Madeline Quintal who donated it in remembrance for her husband.

Announcements

The story of Pedro Calungsod shows us that young people can do great things. Born in the Philippines, Pedro was only 13 when he joined a group of Spanish missionaries who were going to travel to the Marianas Islands to teach the native people about God.

Pedro loved the Church, and he received the Sacraments whenever he could. He was eager to share what he knew about Jesus with others. He did well, and many people were baptized into the faith because of his efforts.

But some people did not trust the missionary priests. Often the medicine men in the village viewed the missionaries as a threat to their power. One night, when Pedro and a priest arrived in a village to baptize the chief's daughter—at the request of the chief's wife—they were killed by assassins led by the chief. Pedro died for his faith in 1672, when he was only 17.

In 2000, Pope John Paul II beatified Pedro, telling the crowds that gathered for the ceremony, "From his childhood, Pedro Calungsod declared himself unwaveringly for Christ and responded generously to his call. Young people today can draw encouragement and strength from the example of Pedro, whose love of Jesus inspired him to devote his teenage years to teaching the faith as a lay catechist."

Pedro Calungsod was canonized on October 21, 2012, by Pope Benedict XVI.

Our Parish is blessed to have the statue of San Pedro kept across from Deacon Tony's office. San Pedro Calungsod is the second Filipino canonized saint.

PRAYER TO SAN PEDRO CALUNGSOD

San Pedro Calungsod, student, catechist, young migrant,
missionary, faithful friend, martyr,
you inspire us by your fidelity in time of adversity; by your courage in teaching the Faith in the midst of hostility; and by your love in shedding your blood for the sake of the Gospel.

Make our prayers your own (pause to mention your intentions) and intercede for us before the throne of Mercy and Grace so that, as we experience the help of Heaven, we may be encouraged to live and proclaim the Gospel here on earth. Amen.

Saint Monica's Story

The circumstances of St. Monica's life could have made her a nagging wife, a bitter daughter-in-law, and a despairing parent, yet she did not give way to any of these temptations. Although she was a Christian, her parents gave her in marriage to a pagan, Patricius, who lived in her hometown of Tagaste in North Africa. Patricius had some redeeming features, but he had a violent temper and was licentious. Monica also had to bear with a cantankerous mother-in-law who lived in her home. Patricius criticized his wife because of her charity and piety, but always respected her. Monica's prayers and example finally won her husband and mother-in-law to Christianity. Her husband died in 371, one year after his baptism.

Monica had at least three children who survived infancy. The oldest, Augustine, is the most famous. At the time of his father's death, Augustine was 17 and a rhetoric student in Carthage. Monica was distressed to learn that her son had accepted the Manichean heresy—"all flesh is evil"—and was living an immoral life. For a while, she refused to let him eat or sleep in her house. Then one night she had a vision that assured her Augustine would return to the faith. From that time on, she stayed close to her son, praying and fasting for him. In fact she often stayed much closer than Augustine wanted.

When he was 29, Augustine decided to go to Rome to teach rhetoric. Monica was determined to go along. One night he told his mother that he was going to the dock to say goodbye to a friend. Instead he set sail for Rome. Monica was heartbroken when she learned of Augustine's trick, but she still followed him. She arrived in Rome only to find that he had left for Milan. Although travel was difficult, Monica pursued him to Milan.

In Milan, Augustine came under the influence of the bishop, St. Ambrose, who also became Monica's spiritual director. She accepted his advice in everything and had the humility to give up some practices that had become second nature to her. Monica became a leader of the devout women in Milan as she had been in Tagaste.

She continued her prayers for Augustine during his years of instruction. At Easter 387, St. Ambrose baptized Augustine and several of his friends. Soon after, his party left for Africa. Although no one else was aware of it, Monica knew her life was near the end. She told Augustine, "Son, nothing in this world now affords me delight. I do not know what there is now left for me to do or why I am still here, all my hopes in this world being now fulfilled." She became ill shortly after and suffered severely for nine days before her death.

Almost all we know about St. Monica is in the writings of St. Augustine, especially his Confessions.

Reflection

Today, with Google searches, online shopping, text messages, tweets, and instant credit, we have little patience for things that take time. Likewise, we want instant answers to our prayers. Monica is a model of patience. Her long years of prayer, coupled with a strong, well-disciplined character, finally led to the conversion of her hot-tempered husband, her cantankerous mother-in-law and her brilliant but wayward son, Augustine.
