Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

August 29th, 2021

Dt 4: 1-2, 6-8 / Ps 15: 2-5 / Jas 1: 17-18, 21b-22, 27 / Mk 7: 1-8, 14-15, 21-23

In today's gospel, the religious leaders of Jesus's day were accusing him of ignoring their laws and traditions. Jesus turned the tables on them and told them they're missing the main point of what religion is all about. Besides contradicting some of God's laws, Jesus condemned them because they stressed only external observance. Jesus reminds them (and us) that true religion is about a change of heart.

In our society we encounter an overwhelming amount of laws, some from God, some from our religious leaders and many from government and civil authority. Law is important. Without law, civilization cannot survive. Without law there is chaos and anarchy. At the same time freedom is important. We live in a society where too many people think freedom means doing whatever they want without having to answer to any authority. Without law there would be no freedom for we would be spending all our energy simply trying to avoid being annihilated. Moses reminded God's people in today's reading that if they kept God's law they would be admired by their contemporaries and they would prosper. We have to balance the restrictions that laws place upon us with the freedom we want to enjoy. This requires maturity to be able to keep that balance and most of us manage to do a fairly good job of that.

Sometimes when we get tempted, we might think: well, if no one is watching and I don't get caught, maybe I can get by with doing something I shouldn't be doing or avoiding something I should. When we think that way, we're becoming like the Pharisees and thinking only about the externals.

Now, external observance is very important. We might feel like hitting someone over the head with a club, but it is a better thing not to do it. St. James tells us today "Be doers of the world and not hearers only." God's ten commandments are mostly external behavior: worship God, respect his name, honor our parents, do not kill, lie, steal, commit adultery. Only the last two are about what goes on in our hearts: when we want to take possession of what belongs to someone else. Our feelings are not always the purest to the best, but if we behave in a kindly and appropriate manner, that is good. And it is often through doing the right thing that our hearts are changed. For example, I may not always feel like praying, but by trying to pray anyway, I am more likely to develop an interior spirit of prayer. Of course, Jesus wants us to do what is right, but he wants more. He wants nothing less than for our hearts to be filled with his love and grace.

Whether someone is watching or not, it's when we have a right heart that we do the right thing. That's a high level of moral maturity. It's a goal we try to teach our children, it's a goal we strive for ourselves. Until we get to that point, we stumble along with prayer and the sacraments to help us on the way.

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all our hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, and the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge.

We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Religious Education

Registration is open for the 2021-2022 Religious Education Classes.

Registration Forms can be found on the Emmanuel Church website.

Preparation for the sacraments of Reconciliation & First Holy Communion and Confirmation is a two year process. Therefore, students must complete first and second grade Religious Education before receiving First Holy Communion. Likewise, students must complete eighth and ninth grade classes before receiving Confirmation. The sacraments are a tremendous grace from God which necessitate a thorough preparation before reception. If you have a child in grades 8th -12th who did not attend Religious Education classes or a catholic school last year, your child will need to enroll in our eighth grade Pre-Confirmation class this year.

If your child is in the 3rd grade or higher and has not yet received Reconciliation & First Holy Communion, they will need to enroll in class for their grade level as well as the Sacramental prep class.

All students preparing for Reconciliation & First Holy Communion will need to memorize the following prayers: Glory Be, Hail Mary, Our Father, Act of Contrition, Invitation to Communion & The Ten Commandments. Please begin working daily with your child now. Prayer is so important in all of our lives so this is wonderful way to spend time in prayer with your child at the beginning and end of the day as well as mealtimes! Students preparing for Confirmation will need to research a Saint that they are inspired by and write a report on. They will also be required to perform community service hours.

All students receiving Sacraments will need to provide a copy of their Baptismal Certificate with registration.

The fee for Religious education is $25.00 per student and may be paid in cash or check made out to Emmanuel Catholic Church please note religious education on the check. You may make one check for multiple students, just list the students name on the notation part of the check.

Saint of the Week

Saint Gregory the Great's Story

Gregory was the prefect of Rome before he was 30. After five years in office he resigned, founded six monasteries on his Sicilian estate, and became a Benedictine monk in his own home at Rome.

Ordained a priest, Gregory became one of the pope's seven deacons, and also served six years in the East as papal representative in Constantinople. He was recalled to become abbot, but at the age of 50 was elected pope by the clergy and people of Rome.

Gregory was direct and firm. He removed unworthy priests from office, forbade taking money for many services, emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and the victims of plague and famine. He was very concerned about the conversion of England, sending 40 monks from his own monastery. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, and for strengthening respect for doctrine. Whether he was largely responsible for the revision of "Gregorian" chant is disputed.

Gregory lived in a time of perpetual strife with invading Lombards and difficult relations with the East. When Rome itself was under attack, he interviewed the Lombard king.

His book, Pastoral Care, on the duties and qualities of a bishop, was read for centuries after his death. He described bishops mainly as physicians whose main duties were preaching and the enforcement of discipline. In his own down-to-earth preaching, Gregory was skilled at applying the daily Gospel to the needs of his listeners. Called "the Great," Gregory has been given a place with Augustine, Ambrose, and Jerome, as one of the four key doctors of the Western Church.

An Anglican historian has written: "It is impossible to conceive what would have been the confusion, the lawlessness, the chaotic state of the Middle Ages without the medieval papacy; and of the medieval papacy, the real father is Gregory the Great."

Reflection

Gregory was content to be a monk, but he willingly served the Church in other ways when asked. He sacrificed his own preferences in many ways, especially when he was called to be Bishop of Rome. Once he was called to public service, Gregory gave his considerable energies completely to this work. Gregory's description of bishops as physicians fits in well with Pope Francis' description of the Church as a "field hospital."
