Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Sept 19th, 2021

Wis 2:12, 17 - 20 / Ps 54:3 - 4, 5, 6 and 8 / Jas 3:16 - 4:3 / Mk 9:30 - 37

Children have a way of bringing us down to earth. Jesus used a child to bring his disciples back down to earth. Even after he tells them what terrible things he would have to go through, his disciples were busy arguing over which of them was the greatest. You can imagine that in their minds they were already picturing themselves as sitting in a position of prestige and importance next to their Messiah after he drove the Romans out of their land as they expected that he would do. Then Jesus bursts their bubble. “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all.”

Notice Jesus didn’t condemn the apostles for wanting to be great. As a matter of fact he taught them how to be great and how to be important in a way that would really count. “If anyone wishes to be first...” he said, then he told them what they needed to do.

Many of us grew up with warnings about the terrible sin of pride. In our efforts to avoid pride we somehow felt that if we ever thought anything good about ourselves, we were guilty. Jesus does not want us to go through life putting ourselves down. He wants us to be great – but he wants us to be great in the right way. He tells us what the right way is: “If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and the servant of all.”

In another place in the gospels, Jesus gave an example of what it means to be a “servant” by referring to himself when he said: “The Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve.” A person can be rich or poor in society, they can have many friends or few, they can be wheelers or dealers in the eyes of the world or they can be social nobodies. Being someone great in the eyes of the world is not a sin in itself, as long as we got there honestly. But God judges things differently than human beings do. To be great in God’s eyes, it is not necessary for a person to be always putting themselves down or thinking of themselves as worthless. What is necessary is they have learned that the universe does not revolve around them. What is necessary is they have learned how to be servants of our God and servants of others.

He used a little child as an example of how his apostles were supposed to be. We know that children are not the most humble creatures on this earth. They can be very self-centered. In Jewish society at the time of Jesus, children were greatly loved and were seen to be a wonderful blessing from God, but they had no social standing or social power. They did not have the conceit or sophistication of adults. They knew they had much to learn, they knew they had to depend on their parents for their needs and instinctively they trusted that their needs would be met. Trust is one of the charming qualities of a child and at the same time it makes them very vulnerable. That is why it is such a terrible evil for anyone to abuse that trust.

In another place in Scripture, Jesus said: “Unless you become like little children, you cannot enter the kingdom of heaven.” Jesus doesn’t want us to start acting like five years olds; he doesn’t want us to think we know it all but to realize we still have more to learn in life. He also doesn’t want us to forget how much we depend on God as our Father, and he wants us to trust that God will meet our needs.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all our hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, and the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

Dear Parish Family,

Once again I would like to THANK YOU for your generosity and support to our Food Drive for the most vulnerable sisters and brothers in Haiti. We packed 110 boxes of different essential items. It will go straight to Bishop Dumas, the Bishop of Haiti for distribution.

I would like to thank the members of Amoris Christi, Jesus Youth, and the Knights of Columbus in our parish family in making this great endeavor a huge success.

Saint Pio of Pietrelcina's Story

In one of the largest such ceremonies in history, Pope John Paul II canonized Padre Pio of Pietrelcina on June 16, 2002. It was the 45th canonization ceremony in Pope John Paul's pontificate. More than 300,000 people braved blistering heat as they filled St. Peter's Square and nearby streets. They heard the Holy Father praise the new saint for his prayer and charity. "This is the most concrete synthesis of Padre Pio's teaching," said the pope. He also stressed Padre Pio's witness to the power of suffering. If accepted with love, the Holy Father stressed, such suffering can lead to "a privileged path of sanctity."

Many people have turned to the Italian Capuchin Franciscan to intercede with God on their behalf; among them was the future Pope John Paul II. In 1962, when he was still an archbishop in Poland, he wrote to Padre Pio and asked him to pray for a Polish woman with throat cancer. Within two weeks, she had been cured of her life-threatening disease.

Born Francesco Forgione, Padre Pio grew up in a family of farmers in southern Italy. Twice his father worked in Jamaica, New York, to provide the family income.

At the age of 15, Francesco joined the Capuchins and took the name of Pio. He was ordained in 1910 and was drafted during World War I. After he was discovered to have tuberculosis, he was discharged. In 1917, he was assigned to the friary in San Giovanni Rotondo, 75 miles from the city of Bari on the Adriatic.

On September 20, 1918, as he was making his thanksgiving after Mass, Padre Pio had a vision of Jesus. When the vision ended, he had the stigmata in his hands, feet, and side. Life became more complicated after that. Medical doctors, Church authorities, and curiosity seekers came to see Padre Pio. In 1924, and again in 1931, the authenticity of the stigmata was questioned; Padre Pio was not permitted to celebrate Mass publicly or to hear confessions. He did not complain of these decisions, which were soon reversed. However, he wrote no letters after 1924. His only other writing, a pamphlet on the agony of Jesus, was done before 1924.

Padre Pio rarely left the friary after he received the stigmata, but busloads of people soon began coming to see him. Each morning after a 5 a.m. Mass in a crowded church, he heard confessions until noon. He took a mid-morning break to bless the sick and all who came to see him. Every afternoon he also heard confessions. In time his confessional ministry would take 10 hours a day; penitents had to take a number so that the situation could be handled. Many of them have said that Padre Pio knew details of their lives that they had never mentioned.

Padre Pio saw Jesus in all the sick and suffering. At his urging, a fine hospital was built on nearby Mount Gargano. The idea arose in 1940; a committee began to collect money. Ground was broken in 1946. Building the hospital was a technical wonder because of the difficulty of getting water there and of hauling up the building supplies. This "House for the Alleviation of Suffering" has 350 beds.

A number of people have reported cures they believe were received through the intercession of Padre Pio. Those who assisted at his Masses came away edified; several curiosity seekers were deeply moved. Like Saint Francis, Padre Pio sometimes had his habit torn or cut by souvenir hunters.

One of Padre Pio's sufferings was that unscrupulous people several times circulated prophecies that they claimed originated from him. He never made prophecies about world events and never gave an opinion on matters that he felt belonged to Church authorities to decide. He died on September 23, 1968, and was beatified in 1999.

Reflection

Referring to that day's Gospel (Matthew 11:25-30) at Padre Pio's canonization Mass in 2002, Saint John Paul II said: "The Gospel image of 'yoke' evokes the many trials that the humble Capuchin of San Giovanni Rotondo endured. Today we contemplate in him how sweet is the 'yoke' of Christ and indeed how light the burdens are whenever someone carries these with faithful love. The life and mission of Padre Pio testify that difficulties and sorrows, if accepted with love, transform themselves into a privileged journey of holiness, which opens the person toward a greater good, known only to the Lord."
