Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)
Oct 3rd, 2021
Gn 2: 18– 24 / Ps 128: 1-6 / Heb 2: 9-11 / Mk 10: 2-16

Marriage brings joys and laughter, but it can also bring pain and suffering. Of course, life itself brings all these things, whether a person is married or not, but the pains and joys associated with our closest relationships touch us where we are most vulnerable. Jesus is talking to us today about those times when the joy and laughter is gone and the wife or the husband, or perhaps both, decide to call it quits.

One of the many problems with society's attitude about marriage is that too many people view marriage as their own private affair. Jesus reminds us today in the quote from Genesis, that human beings didn't invent marriage. The origin of marriage is from God and God has some ideas about what marriage should be like. It's not just a private affair that allows two people to determine what the rules and regulations are. In marriage two people make a promise to each other but at the same time their promise is called a vow because that promise is also made to God. God made rules about marriage because he wants it to be a blessing for his people. And although Moses allowed divorce (which Jesus said was allowed because of the hardness of their hearts) Jesus said it was not God's plan. God's plan from the beginning was for marriage to be permanent, and although divorce is sometimes necessary, it's usually not a blessing for anyone. Evidence is building even in the scientific environment that divorce is not good either for adults or for kids. Marriage, which often is not easy, needs God's help and God will be there to help if we ask. Another item from which modern-day research shows that people who attend church weekly have greater marital happiness.

Some people confuse falling in love with real love. Falling in love is wonderful, but it's only a beginning. Real love requires a certain amount of compatibility, taking time to get to know one another, it takes a lot of work, and a lot of sensitivity, understanding, forgiveness and unselfishness. When Jesus tells us the most important commandment is love, we have in that word "commandment" that it's not always going to be easy. An article I read recently surveyed couples who were unhappy in their marriages but who decided to stick it out. They reported that after five years their marriages had turned around and they were as happy as they had every been or even happier. Today's gospel was about marriage, but whether we're married or not, we all must learn how to love. That is our calling as followers of Christ and that will be our joy in eternity.

One of my favorite statements about marriage is this: The shortest sentence in the English language is "I am," the longest is "I do."

Part of the problem with marriage today is that it is seen by many people as a private arrangement. Its origin is from God as we heard in the first reading. In marriage two people promise God as well as each other to take each other as husband and wife "for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health until death."

I learned that every way of life has its joys and its difficulties. Whether we're married or not, our major task in life is learning how to grow in love. That's what it's all about and that will be our joy in this life and in heaven.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you! Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all our hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, and the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge.
We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

October 3, 2021

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord:

October is designated as Respect Life Month, with the first Sunday, October 3, as Respect Life Sunday. This year is dedicated to St. Joseph who is a model of respect for life as the foster father of Jesus and the husband of Mary. Joseph's strong defense of the gift of life is experienced as we first encounter him in the Scriptures, when the angel appears to him in a dream and directs him to take Mary as his wife after she had conceived Jesus in her womb through the power of the Holy Spirit. St. Joseph reminds us of the need to give witness to life today in a world and society which has lost true respect for life, especially through the legal acceptance of abortion. When abortion is permitted, as is the case in our country, respect for life at every stage is forsaken and diminished. This year, as Catholics, we are deeply saddened as the present administration of our nation is one of the most aggressive in regard to the promotion of abortion. We realize our obligation to stand firm in opposition to this through all legal means available to us.

In a very recent video on adoption by Pope Francis during this year of the fifth anniversary of his Apostolic Exhortation, Amoris laetitia, he stated: "Every baby, in every case and in whatever situation, is to be welcomed because he or she is a child. Parents' love is the means by which God shows His love. He awaits the birth of every baby. He accepts and welcomes each child as they are. I want to say to every woman expecting a child: you are God's awesome instrument to welcome and offer a new life in the world." Pope Francis' moving words are a special reminder to us, on Respect Life Sunday, of our commitment to protect the gift of life on behalf of every person from the moment of conception until natural death.

During this Year of St. Joseph, let us renew our commitment to do all we can to promote respect for life at every stage. We and others live life to the fullest when we do so. I am grateful to all of the faithful within our Diocese who are such outstanding promoters of the defense of life.

With every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

The life of St. Joseph

Saint Joseph's Story

The Bible pays Joseph the highest compliment: he was a “just” man. The quality meant a lot more than faithfulness in paying debts.

When the Bible speaks of God “justifying” someone, it means that God, the all-holy or “righteous” one, so transforms a person that the individual shares somehow in God’s own holiness, and hence it is really “right” for God to love him or her. In other words, God is not playing games, acting as if we were lovable when we are not.

By saying Joseph was “just,” the Bible means that he was one who was completely open to all that God wanted to do for him. He became holy by opening himself totally to God.

The rest we can easily surmise. Think of the kind of love with which he wooed and won Mary, and the depth of the love they shared during their marriage.

It is no contradiction of Joseph’s manly holiness that he decided to divorce Mary when she was found to be with child. The important words of the Bible are that he planned to do this “quietly” because he was “a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame” (Matthew 1:19).

The just man was simply, joyfully, wholeheartedly obedient to God—in marrying Mary, in naming Jesus, in shepherding the precious pair to Egypt, in bringing them to Nazareth, in the undetermined number of years of quiet faith and courage.

Reflection

The Bible tells us nothing of Joseph in the years after the return to Nazareth except the incident of finding Jesus in the Temple (Luke 2:41–51). Perhaps this can be taken to mean that God wants us to realize that the holiest family was like every other family, that the circumstances of life for the holiest family were like those of every family, so that when Jesus’ mysterious nature began to appear, people couldn’t believe that he came from such humble beginnings: “Is he not the carpenter’s son? Is not his mother named Mary...?” (Matthew 13:55a). It was almost as indignant as “Can anything good come from Nazareth?” (John 1:46b).
