Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)
November 14th, 2021
Dn 12: 1-3 / Ps 16: 5, 8-11 / Heb 10: 11-14,8 / Mk 13: 24-32

The Greek word “apocalypse” means revealing something or making something fully known. There are many passages in the Bible that are apocalyptic in nature. Most were written during a time when God’s people were being persecuted. They gave hope to God’s people during those times that if they remained faithful to God they would be victorious in the end. The last book of the Bible is called the Book of Revelation. It is also called the Apocalypse because that is the word with which the book begins. Today we hear another example of apocalyptic writing in the Book of Daniel. Today’s first reading was composed about 165 years before Christ during the time when the Syrians were trying to obliterate the Jewish religion. During this painful historic time, any books from the Hebrew Scriptures that could be found were burned, the temple was turned into a temple to the Greek god, Zeus, and any Jews who refused to offer sacrifice to pagan gods were put to death. This passage contains a clear belief in the resurrection of the body by the year 165 BC.

There was an old monk dying in a little country monastery. The monks living with him knew he was dying and so they tried to make him as comfortable as possible. One of the things they did for him was to give him a little warm milk each day with a little brandy mixed into it. This seemed to calm him down. When he was getting ready to breathe his last, they asked him if he had any last words for them. He said: “brothers, whatever you do, don’t ever get rid of that cow.”

There was a funeral director who regularly ended his letters with the words: “Eventually yours.” We’re all headed toward that day when we’re going to meet our maker. It’s a time very few people, especially those who are younger, care to hear about or think about. But as the year comes to an end, the Church takes this occasion to make us aware that our life in this world will come to an end someday too. Or as one of my friends often says: “everything has a beginning, a middle, and an end.” In reminding us of these things, the Church is not trying to depress us. It is trying to keep us in touch with reality. The reality is God has better plans for us than for us to spend a few short years in this life, and then for that to be the end for us “You are my inheritance, O Lord” is our psalm refrain. In other words, God created us to be with him. God showed us through his Son the way to get there.

We know time is relative. Christmas will be here in a little more than a month. Most of us are running around frantically thinking how it can come so quickly. For a six-year-old child, it probably seems like it will never get here. To say the time of suffering will be short is relative. How short is short? Sometimes when we’re suffering it seems to go on forever and we get discouraged. Compared to eternity, though, it will be very short. In the meantime, we have the sacraments and Jesus’ word to sustain us. His words will never pass away. It is our sure rock.

Tribulation and suffering will not last forever and if we are faithful to the Lord, he will bring us into a springtime of new life that will never end. We must not let anything discourage us, but keep watch and be ready for we do not know when the Lord will tell us he’s ready for us.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you!

Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Registration Information

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all our hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, and the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY AND THEIR FAMILIES

Prayer to Saint Jude for Hope

God the Father, give me hope. Help me to know that your hope is alive in me as I offer kindness, forgiveness, and tenderness to others. I seek the calm that comes from trusting in your hope and your healing presence.

I trust that your servant St. Jude walks with me and in all the blessings and challenges of my life, and intercedes on behalf of my petitions.

St. Jude, fill my heart with hope.
Amen.

Silver Jubilee

I felt drawn to the diaconate soon after Vatican II when Pope Paul VI restored the order. I wanted to help people recognize the call of the Council to take their vocation of the laity seriously and become more active and empowered in the Church.

I was ordained Deacon on May 18, 1996 after seven years of study by Bishop John McGann for the Diocese of Rockville Centre and sent by him to Holy Name of Mary Parish in Valley Stream, where I served as deacon for 10 years.

My brother's illness and death caused me to relocate to Emmanuel Church in Delray Beach in 2005. Through Monsignor Fiore I was assigned here by Bishop Gerald Barbarito and have ministered with Fr. Timothy Sockol, Fr. Gaudioso Zamora, Fr. Theo Ihedoro along with Deacon Richard Santana.

I could not be happier than I am in ministering here with the parish family not only liturgically, but as Director of Adult Education, Chairperson of the Finance Council and as such I confer Baptisms, marriages, funerals, and I am being present to all who are hatched, matched, and dispatched.

Please join with me in a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday November 14, 2021 at 12:00 noon followed by a lunch at Columbus Hall. ALL ARE WELCOME!

Sincerely, Deacon Tony

Saint of the Week

Saint Albert the Great's Story

Albert the Great was a 13th-century German Dominican who decisively influenced the Church's stance toward Aristotelian philosophy brought to Europe by the spread of Islam.

Students of philosophy know him as the master of Thomas Aquinas. Albert's attempt to understand Aristotle's writings established the climate in which Thomas Aquinas developed his synthesis of Greek wisdom and Christian theology. But Albert deserves recognition on his own merits as a curious, honest, and diligent scholar.

He was the eldest son of a powerful and wealthy German lord of military rank. He was educated in the liberal arts. Despite fierce family opposition, he entered the Dominican novitiate.

His boundless interests prompted him to write a compendium of all knowledge: natural science, logic, rhetoric, mathematics, astronomy, ethics, economics, politics, and metaphysics.

His explanation of learning took 20 years to complete. "Our intention," he said, "is to make all the aforesaid parts of knowledge intelligible to the Latins."

He achieved his goal while serving as an educator at Paris and Cologne, as Dominican provincial, and even as bishop of Regensburg for a short time. He defended the mendicant orders and preached the Crusade in Germany and Bohemia.

Albert, a Doctor of the Church, is the patron of scientists and philosophers.

Reflection

An information glut faces us Christians today in all branches of learning. One needs only to read current Catholic periodicals to experience the varied reactions to the findings of the social sciences, for example, in regard to Christian institutions, Christian life-styles, and Christian theology.

Ultimately, in canonizing Albert, the Church seems to point to his openness to truth, wherever it may be found, as his claim to holiness. His characteristic curiosity prompted Albert to mine deeply for wisdom within a philosophy his Church warmed to with great difficulty.
