Parish Family
God is with us*

Parish Mission Statement

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As one parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

Fourth Sunday of Advent (C)
December 19th, 2021
Mi 5:1-4a / Ps 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19 / Heb 10:5-10 / Lk 1:39-45

What is a mother? The late Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty described her as “the most important person on earth. She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not. She has built something more significant than any cathedral- a dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby’s body”

St. Paul tells us in his letter to the Galatians: “When the fullness of time came, God sent his Son. He came born of a woman... in order to redeem... make us adopted sons and daughters of God. And because you are sons, God has sent into your hearts and spirit of his son which cries out: Abba! That is: Father” (Gal 4: 4-6).

This is the reason why mothers have a very glorious dignity because Jesus, the Redeemer had deemed it worthy to be born, formed and loved by a mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. All mothers are special before God.

We need more than ever to take Mary as our model of selflessness. Her openness to life and love made her humbly obey the will of God in her life. The mystery of Incarnation is that God the Son became man. But in order for him to assume the nature of man, he needs not only a human mother, but the consent of a woman to be his mother. Thus, during the Annunciation, Mary expressed her free and voluntary consent to be the mother of the Redeemer. What she had was her deep faith and humility as the handmaid of the Lord.

In the Old Testament, it was the woman named Eve who became the mother of death. In the New Testament, it was the woman named Mary who became the mother of life, for in her womb she conceived Jesus, the Savior of mankind. Elizabeth in our Gospel reading profoundly declared to Mary: “Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb.”

Elizabeth knew too well that life is sacred because it is a gift from God. She had been waiting patiently for a child for many years. It was in her old age that she conceived John the Baptist in the womb of her being , thirsting for life that comes from God. Her own awareness of God’s mysterious power made her discern the greater working of the Holy Spirit in Mary. She exclaimed: “Who am I that the mother of my Lord should come for me?”

We must understand that Mary was not a passive receiver of motherhood. She was truly a person who manifested her worthiness that she carried Jesus in her being. The mother of Christ became a servant herself when she went to visit Elizabeth.

Christmas means the gift of the child. Mary accepted that gift in her heart and womb. She became a mother and a disciple. It freely enabled her to trust and obey the Lord. In a world filled with fear and doubt, let the child Jesus really become God’s presence in us. It is in this way that we can better appreciate ourselves and others as persons worth loving and caring for. In the words of the Holy Father, Pope John Paul II on October 16, 1978, he said: “Do not be afraid. Open your doors to the Redeemer!”

Like Mary, our model and mother, let it be so with us.

Parishioner Registration Forms

Registering as an Official Parishioner of Emmanuel is very important to us and you!

Attending Mass on a regular basis does not technically mean you are registered. You must fill out a form, which will be entered into our records. Please pick up a form at the back of the church and return it to the parish office. You may also call the office to verify if you are already registered or not. Thank you!

Registration Information

Prayer Before Communion

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer For The Pavilion Project

Loving Father, creator of all things, we come to you asking your blessing on the construction of our pavilion. We pray for all involved in this project from donors to those who will bring it to completion. We dedicate this endeavor through the intercession of St. Joseph the worker. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all our hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, and the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY AND THEIR FAMILIES

Prayer to Saint Jude for Hope

God the Father, give me hope. Help me to know that your hope is alive in me as I offer kindness, forgiveness, and tenderness to others. I seek the calm that comes from trusting in your hope and your healing presence.

I trust that your servant St. Jude walks with me and in all the blessings and challenges of my life, and intercedes on behalf of my petitions.

St. Jude, fill my heart with hope.
Amen.

Saint of the Week

Saint Peter Canisius' Story

The energetic life of Peter Canisius should demolish any stereotypes we may have of the life of a saint as dull or routine. Peter lived his 76 years at a pace which must be considered heroic, even in our time of rapid change. A man blessed with many talents, Peter is an excellent example of the scriptural man who develops his talents for the sake of the Lord's work.

Peter was one of the most important figures in the Catholic Reformation in Germany. He played such a key role that he has often been called the "second apostle of Germany," in that his life parallels the earlier work of Boniface.

Although Peter once accused himself of idleness in his youth, he could not have been idle too long, for at the age of 19 he received a master's degree from the university at Cologne. Soon afterwards he met Peter Faber, the first disciple of Ignatius of Loyola, who influenced Peter so much that he joined the recently formed Society of Jesus.

At this early age Peter had already taken up a practice he continued throughout his life—a process of study, reflection, prayer, and writing. After his ordination in 1546, he became widely known for his editions of the writings of St. Cyril of Alexandria and St. Leo the Great. Besides this reflective literary bent, Peter had a zeal for the apostolate. He could often be found visiting the sick or imprisoned, even when his assigned duties in other areas were more than enough to keep most people fully occupied.

In 1547, Peter attended several sessions of the Council of Trent, whose decrees he was later assigned to implement. After a brief teaching assignment at the Jesuit college at Messina, Peter was entrusted with the mission to Germany—from that point on his life's work. He taught in several universities and was instrumental in establishing many colleges and seminaries. He wrote a catechism that explained the Catholic faith in a way that common people could understand—a great need of that age.

Renowned as a popular preacher, Peter packed churches with those eager to hear his eloquent proclamation of the gospel. He had great diplomatic ability, often serving as a reconciler between disputing factions. In his letters—filling eight volumes—one finds words of wisdom and counsel to people in all walks of life. At times he wrote unprecedented letters of criticism to leaders of the Church—yet always in the context of a loving, sympathetic concern.

At 70, Peter suffered a paralytic seizure, but he continued to preach and write with the aid of a secretary, until his death in his hometown of Nijmegen, Netherlands, on December 21, 1597.

Reflection

Peter's untiring efforts are an apt example for those involved in the renewal of the Church or the growth of moral consciousness in business or government. He is regarded as one of the creators of the Catholic press, and can easily be a model for the Christian author or journalist. Teachers can see in his life a passion for the transmission of truth. Whether we have much to give, as Peter Canisius did, or whether we have only a little to give, as did the poor widow in the Gospel of Luke (see Luke 21:1-4), the important thing is to give our all. It is in this way that Peter is so exemplary for Christians in an age of rapid change when we are called to be in the world but not of the world.
